The following is from "History of NEMAHA COUNTY Kansas", by Ralph Tennal; Standard Publishing Co., Lawrence, Kansas - 1916. Kansas State Library, Topeka, Kansas

Wetmore seems to have retained her early day citizens, or their descendants, more than most towns. The merchants of today are the merchants of the early days, or their children or grandchildren. The same names are seen in the Wetmore paper every week, Vilott, De Forest, Rising, Haigh, names not of general use, are still identified with Wetmore.

During the current winter Mrs. George C. Cox died, leaving several farms near Wetmore and considerable cash to be divided among her several children. When Mr. and Mrs. Cox came to Wetmore from London, England, in 1868, Mr. Cox was so poor that he was obliged to pay for the first breaking on the farm he had homesteaded by giving his coat for it. The farms left by Mrs. Cox included the homestead. Mr. Cox remained on this homestead until his death in 1901. The winter after his arrival he built a "Kansas" or blockhouse on the farm and with a cord of wood as family supplies he commenced farming. Three years later he was the victim of the grasshopper scourge. But out of it Mr. and Mrs. Cox came unscathed. Four of their twelve children were born on the farm, the others in London, where Mr. and Mrs. Cox were married in St. Barnabas' Church. Her six Nemaha county sons were Mrs. Cox's pallbearers.

John Radford, who is mentioned in reminiscences of John Fuller as one of the promoters of the Kansas emigration of English workingmen, was a Wetmore resident. John Radford was a dreamer and a zealot. A dream of better conditions for the poor. A zealot in living his theories. He was an early day jeweler of Wetmore. His barren childhood, in which his fight for existence was an ever-living battle, made him only more determined to be educated and help others. He attended night schools, mechanics' institutes and lyceums. For a dreary seven years in his Devonshire, England, home he was apprenticed wageless to a jeweler and engraver. He became a Liberal in social matters. Of the immigration party to Kansas, written by Mr. Fuller, John Radford and James Murray were the pushers. One pound (about $5) shares of an emigration company were issued. Each member was allowed a maximum of fifteen shares. The company was supposed to buy American lands and lease them to others for developing. Six original families came over, twenty following shortly afterward. The company was a failure, for the reason that anyone could have Kansas land almost for the taking at that time. But fifty English families settled in Nemaha county, sturdy, thrifty, industrious, who have done much toward making the county one of solid foundation. So while the scheme failed the outcome was more than successful.

	BILL	GEORGE P.	ART
	HARRY	ADA	HARRIET	FRED
GEORGE KING	CHARLEY	TOM	JANE LANSLEY

George Cox, a carpenter—they were practically all tradesmen—was sent over to superintend fencing the Colony lands. And, very much to the merriment of the natives, he did that fencing in the dead of winter, when the ground was frozen. The postholes he and his countrymen dug that winter cost the Company one dollar, each. Such frozen assets were, of course, conducive to the downfall of the Company.

But George Cox was not the fool that his ice-bound fence would indicate. The real fault was on the other side of the big pond. The Company sent Cox over here in mid-winter to build a fence. He was without funds. The larder at Llewellyn Castle was low—distressingly low. And his brother Englishmen needed immediate succor. There was money for George Cox only when he worked. And he couldn't afford to put in all his time that blizzardy, snow-bound winter hanging onto the coat-tail of one of his brother countrymen while the bunch of them played ring-round-the-stove in that old Colony house to keep from freezing, as he once told me he was compelled to do. So, then, what was really wrong with George's congealed fence idea?

Like other Englishmen, after coming here, George Cox had a lot to learn, of course. He was the complainant in a lawsuit involving the ownership of a cow. John J. Ingalls was attorney for Theodore Wolfley, the defendant. The illustrious John J. queried, "What color was your cow, Mr. Cox?"

"Bay," said George. The court laughed, and told Cox to try again.

"Well," said George, "I 'ave a bay 'orse, and my cow's the same color as my bay 'orse.")

John Stowell settled on the north eighty of a quarter five miles southwest of Wetmore—known as the Joe Board place, and still later owned by Charley Krack. George Cox settled the south eighty, which is still in the Cox family—now owned by George's son Fred, of Goff.

With George Cox and his two sons, Bill and young George, I helped build that Holland corral earlier mentioned—and a small bunk house.

George Cox Dead.

George Cox, sr., died of apoplexy while visiting at the home of his son north of Goffs last Sunday afternoon. He and his wife had gone from their home five miles southwest of Wetmore to the home of their son George north of Goffs to spend the day. They had been there only a short time when Mr. Cox was overcome by a stroke of apoplexy and died in a few minutes. About a year ago he was stricken in the same way and came near dying. He had also previously had several lighter attacks. During the past year he has repeatedly said that the next stroke would take him off, and in this he was not mistaken. George Cox has lived in and around Wetmore for the past 33 years. He came here from England, his native country, and followed carpentering during the early days of this town. Later he went onto a farm about five miles southwest of here, where he remained until the time of his death. Mr. Cox was an honorable citizen, respected by all in his community. He was about 64 years of age, and leaves a wife and seven sons and one daughter. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. T. E. Rolfe, were held at his late home on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, and the remains were brought here for burial. Mr. Cox was a member of the Wetmore I. O. O. F. lodge, and the Wetmore Odd Fellows joined the funeral procession here and took charge of the burial.

Cox Will Probated.

Probate Judge Higgins came down from Seneca Tuesday noon for the purpose of opening the will of the late Jane Cox, before the family departed to their homes. C. S. Goodrich and J. E. Dorman were the subscribing witnesses to the will by which Mrs. Cox willed her real estate consisting of two eighty acre farms and the residence in Goff equally to the seven living children. Special bequests of $250 each were given to the three grandchildren, whose parents are deceased. The daughter, Mrs. E. C. Mahler received the household goods and personal effects. F. J. Cox of Goff was named in the will as executor.

"Grandma" Cox.

At her home in Goff, surrounded by the members of her family, death came to Mrs. Jane Cox last Saturday morning shortly after two o'clock. We seldom look upon death as beautiful, but in the passing of this quiet, dignified, white haired lady, there seems a restful benediction upon family and friends to mingle with their grief in parting. For over a week all the members of the family had been at the Mother's bedside, and her passing was not unexpected. Death came quietly and was probably the result of the enfeebled organs of the body failing to longer perform their functions.

Jane Lansley was born November 18, 1840, in Portland, England, and departed this life at her home in Goff, Kansas, January 8, 1916, at the age of 75 years, 1 month and 20 days. She was married at St. Barnabus church, London, England, on January 23, 1859, to Mr. George King Cox. In 1869, with her husband and children then living, she came to Wetmore, Kansas, and later moved to the old homestead six miles southwest of Wetmore. Here they lived until the death of Mr. Cox, November 10, 1901. Twelve children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Cox, the seven living are: George P. of Atchison, William of Goff, Harry of Kansas City, Fred J. Arthur and Mrs. Ada C. Mahler of Goff and Charley of Kansas City. In addition to those living were Mrs. Harriet Sourk, who departed this life at the age of 37, Tom Cox at the age of 26, Susie at the age of 9 and Albert and Jane, who died in infancy.

She also leaves to mourn her departure thirty-three grandchildren and twenty-four greatgrandchildren.

She later moved to Goff, where Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mahler and daughter and later Arthur Cox and daughters have made their home with her.

Mrs. Cox was first received into the Baptist church of Wetmore, but a change of location brought about a change of membership and she became a member of the Christian church of Goff. She was also a member of Excelsior Rebecca Lodge No. 421 and the Royal Neighbors No. 776. Where she has lived and worked she will be missed and will be ever held in living remembrance.

The funeral services were held at the Goff Church Monday forenoon at ten o'clock. Rev. C. A. Richard Community Pastor of Seneca, former pastor of the Goff Christian church, paid a touching tribute to the life of Grandma Cox, that was in accord with the feelings of relatives, neighbors and friends, who came to the church to pay their last respects to this Christian soul.

The floral offerings were especially profuse and beautiful.

The six sons of the departed were pallbearers, as the last earthly service they could give to the body that had borne them and cared for them. Seldom, indeed, is it that the body of Mother is carried to its final resting place by six adult sons, who have grown to manhood and have families of their own.

The body was taken to Wetmore on the 11:25 train and burial was in the Wetmore cemetery beside the departed husband. The Rebecca and Royal Neighbor lodges had charge of the services at the grave.

Card of Thanks.

To our friends and neighbors for their many words of comfort and acts of assistance during the illness and after the death of our mother, Mrs. Jane Cox, we wish to express our most sincere thanks. We also wish to thank the friends for the beautiful floral offerings.

The Family.

George Cox Dies At Atchison Hospital

George P. Cox, 88, died at 11:30 o'clock at the Atchison hospital, where he had been a patient since Sunday. He had been ill only a week.

The day of services is pending word from out-of-town relatives. The services will be held at the Stanton & Stanton chapel with the Rev. Harold Roberts of the First Christian church officiating. Burial will be in Mount Vernon cemetery. Pallbearers will be Leslie Christian, Glen Clovis, Leo Durkin, Robert Durkin, Lester Marlatt and Milton Marlatt.

A native of London, England, George P. Cox was born Sept. 16, 1859. When 11 years old he came with his parents to Wetmore. His marriage to Miss Eva Mae Ashton, also a native of England, occurred in Wetmore about 67 years ago. They resided there until 1904 when the family moved to Atchison. The family residence here was at 905 George street.

Mr. Cox was a carpenter by trade and was employed for many years at the Missouri Pacific shops. He retired about 30 years ago. Since the death of his wife, which occurred in 1931, he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Lester Marlatt, route 1.

He is survived by 10 children; Mrs. Florence Christian, Mrs. Lester Marlatt, Miss Virgie Cox and Miss Bernice Cox, all of Atchison, Mrs. Daisy Clark, Wichita, Albert Cox, San Francisco, George K. Cox, Inglewood, Calif., Mrs. Jane Miller, Kansas City, Mrs. Anna Hoffman, Manhattan, and Mrs. Maude Horton, Wilson, N. C. Two children, Mrs. Harriet Durkin and Horace Cox, preceded him in death. Other survivors include 28 grandchildren and more than 30 great-grandchildren.

George Cox 1948

George Cox, 88, passed away at the Atchison hospital last Wednesday, February 25. He had been ill only a week. A native of London, England, George P. Cox was born Sept. 16, 1859. When 11 years of age he moved with his parents to Wetmore. He was married to Miss Eva Mae Ashton, also a native of England at Wetmore 67 years ago. They lived near Wetmore and Goff, moving to Atchison in 1904. Mr. Cox was a carpenter by trade and was employed for many years at the Missouri Pacific shops. He retired thirty years ago. Since the death of his wife in 1931, he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Lester Marlatt, Atchison. He is survived by ten children, 28 grandchildren and more than thirty great grandchildren.

The funeral was held at the Stanton & Stanton chapel, Sunday, Feb. 29, with Rev. Harold Roberts officiating. Burial was at Mount Vernon cemetery. Mr. Cox is survived by one sister and three brothers, Mrs. Ada Mahler, Fred and A. A. Cox of Goff and Charles Cox of Kansas City, Kan.

Relatives who attended the funeral of Mr. Cox at Atchison Sunday included Mrs. Ada Mahler, Fred Cox, A. A. Cox and daughter, Miss Elsie, Goff; Mr. and Mrs. Will Porter and son, Edwin, Mr. and Mrs. Bartley and daughter, Wetmore; Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Cox, Corning; Miss Marvel Cox, Topeka; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dean Coffelt and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox, Kansas City.

MRS. GEORGE P. COX DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Confined to her bed for the past eight months, Mrs. Eva Ashton Cox, 69, wife of George P. Cox, died at 2:45 o'clock this morning at her home, 905 George Street, where she had lived since 1904. Mrs. Cox has 43 direct descendants all living.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon with burial in Mt. Vernon cemetery. The Rev. M. O. Kellison will officiate. Stantons are in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. George Cox was well known and highly respected in Atchison. She was an ideal wife, and a kind and loving mother. During her long illness she was patient and considerate of those around her.

Born in London, England, March 2, 1862, she came to the United States in 1870 with her parents, the late Thomas and Mary Ann Ashton, who settled in the Wetmore community. September 17, 1882 she was married to George Phillips Cox at Wetmore, and they moved to Atchison in 1904.

Mrs. Cox was the mother of 12 children all of whom survive. There are 29 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband, and the following sons and daughters, Mrs. Ed Christian, Mrs. W. F. Durkin, Mrs. Lester Marlatt, Miss Virgie Cox, who is employed at Dilgert's, and Miss Bernice Cox, all of Atchison; H. C. Cox and Mrs. Albert Miller, both of Kansas City, Kas.; Mrs. Gilbert Clark, Arkansas City, Kas.; George K. Cox, Effingham; Mrs. E. J. Hoffman, Eureka, Kas.; Mrs. E. C. Horton, Ashville, N. C.; and Albert C. Cox, U. S. N., who is stationed on the U. S. S. Pennsylvania.

Four brothers, Vincent Ashton, Atchison; Clifford Ashton, Seattle, Wash.; Clarence Ashton, Del Rio, Texas; and George Ashton, Atchison, also survive.

Many relatives and friends from this community were in Atchison Friday afternoon for the funeral services of Mrs. Geo. P. Cox, who died at her home there Tuesday evening of last week, after a long illness. Services were at the Atchison Christian church, in charge of the pastor, Rev. Kellison, and interment was in Mt. Vernon cemetery.

Eva Ashton was born in London, England, March 2, 1862, and came to America with her parents in 1870, and settled at Wetmore. She was married to Mr. Cox, there, on September 17, 1882, and the family made their home in Wetmore until 1904, when they moved to Atchison. All of the twelve children born to them survive, also twenty-nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Mrs. Cox is also survived by four brothers and one sister. Mr. Cox is a brother of F. J. and A. A. Cox and Mrs. E. C. Mahler, of Goff.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

In Memory Of

LLOYD FREDERICK WELLS

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
 for thou art with me; thy rod and
 thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
 thou anointest my head with oil;
 my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
 me all the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the
presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Gilbert Clark, A Sewing Machine Salesman, Had Been Ill

Gilbert Clark, 43, a resident of this city for a number of years, took his own life early this morning by drinking the contents of a two-ounce bottle of carbolic acid. Members of the family and the family physician, Dr. M. M. Miller, believe the suicide was caused by dependency brought on by ill health.

Mr. Clark was found about 6:30 o'clock this morning in the bathroom at his home, 308 South First street, in an unconscious condition. Mrs. Clark noticed that he had left his bedroom and then discovered that the bathroom door was locked from the inside and that no one answered her calls.

Broke Open Door

She called assistance and broke open the door to find her husband on the floor in a dying condition. He was unable to speak at that time. The empty bottle which contained the poison was nearby.

Dr. Miller was called to the home immediately, but there was no chance to save the man's life, he said. Clark died within a few minutes after the physician arrived.

No Inquest

Dr. Miller at once notified Coroner A. E. Morris of Winfield, who came to the city later in the day to hold an investigation. When appraised of the facts in the case, the coroner said no inquest would be held. The body was taken to the Oldroyd parlors.

Mr. Clark for a number of years was manager for the Singer Sewing Machine company here. Some time ago, however, he gave up the management of that company, and had since been in the sewing machine sales and repair business for himself, with his office and work shop at home.

The widow and five children survive. The children are Gilbert, jr., Eva May, Howard, Paul and Wanda Lee, the youngest age 2 years. Mr. Clark was born in Mountain Grove, Mo., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, reside there. The father is here now as he was called to the city last Wednesday, at which time the son suffered a sick spell. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Clark resided at Winfield for a short time before coming to this city 10 years ago. Brothers and sisters surviving are: John of Winfield; Orvie of California; Edwin of Mountain Grove, Mo.; Ernest of Beloit, Kas.; Mrs. J. S. Brace of Sanger, Calif.; Mrs. John Stanfield, Arkansas City; Mrs. Homer Griffith, Lyons, Kas.; Miss Violet Clark and Mrs. Jack Burton, both of Mountain Grove.

Mr. Clark was a member of the First M. E. church of this city. He was a member of the Woodmen lodge, Moose lodge, and the Knights and Ladies of Security lodge. When he first came to Arkansas City he was in the employ of the Jewell Tea company. No arrangements have been made for the funeral and burial.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.

For tho' from out our bourne of time and

The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Durkin Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services for William F. Durkin, 91, will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's church, south of Atchison. The Rev. Jude Burbach will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

The rosary will be recited at 8 o'clock tonight at the Sawin & Dyer chapel.

The pallbearers will be Lester Marlatt, Milton Marlatt, Robert Hoffman, Edward Christian, Eugene McCoy and Eugene Albertson.

Mr. Durkin died Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Norval Clark, and Mrs. Clark, 1422 Crowell street. Until he became ill in August he had lived on the same farm, 4 1/2 miles south of Atchison, nearly all of his lifetime.

A son of Patrick and Catherine Quirk Durkin, William Francis Durkin was born Nov. 13, 1873, in a log cabin. His parents, who came from Philadelphia, homesteaded their land in Atchison county. They came to this vicinity in 1856.

His father helped build St. Patrick's church more than 100 years ago. His father was born in County Down, Ireland.

On Feb. 22, 1899, Mr. Durkin married Miss Winifred tion, the Modern Woodmen, and the Knights of Columbus.

For 18 years Mr. Durkin was on the board of Terry district school No. 5. He attended the same school as a boy.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. Norval (Harriet) Clark of Atchison, he leaves four sons, John Durkin, Tucson, Ariz., George Durkin, Eudora, Leo Durkin, 725 Kearney street, and Robert Durkin, 1915 Pine street; 20 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Three sons, William, Edward and Thomas, preceded him in death.

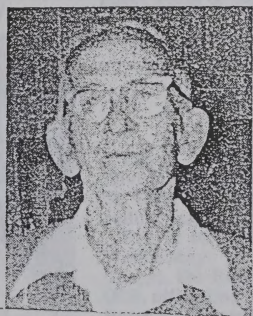

He was the last survivor of the 12 children in his immediate family.

The only time William Durkin was out of the St. Patrick's neighborhood was when he worked in the Colorado mines. For six months he was a fireman on the Denver short line railroad.

As a young man Durkin was a hunting companion and guide for E.W. Howe, founder of The Globe, on quail hunting trips, in the St. Patrick's neighborhood.

Mr. Durkin recalled that when he was a boy there were 90 families living in the St. Patrick's neighborhood.

After the death of his second wife in 1944 Mr. Durkin lived alone at his farm home, 1 1/4 miles south of the county farm.

ATCHISON MARINE IS VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

William Patrick Durkin, a Mount Pleasant township boy who belonged to the United States Marines, died yesterday in a naval hospital at Paris Island, S. C. He became ill about January 3, developed influenza, and finally succumbed to pneumonia. He was twenty years of age, and a real patriot. He enlisted in the marines in October, last year, and was immediately sent to the training camp at Paris Island. He was intensely patriotic, and was ill at ease before he enlisted, so anxious was he to serve his country. He was the son of W. F. Durkin, of Mount Pleasant township. The death message arrived late yesterday, and stated that the young marine had died at 3:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The remains will be brought to Atchison, and probably will arrive Friday.

William Durkin, the marine, spent the holidays at his home south of town. At that time he was not feeling well. Writing to his father under date of January 3, from Paris Island, he stated that he was not feeling well, and had been assigned to light duty. January 6 an officer wired the father that the illness of the young man had become serious. The boy's mother died eight years ago last April, and he is survived by his father, step-mother, and four brothers, John, Edward, Thomas and Raymond.

William Patrick Durkin was born in Mount Pleasant township January 23, 1899. Prior to the death of his mother nine years ago, he and his parents lived four years in Colorado Springs. For four years he attended school in Kansas City, where he lived with his aunt, Mrs. E. J. Connors. After his return home he attended St. Patrick's school south of town, and was popular with his school mates and all neighbors, for he was a polite, agreeable, industrious young man.

The body will arrive in Atchison by train at 1:40 a. m. Saturday and will be taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Durkin, three miles south of Atchison. It will remain at the home until the funeral time Sunday. The rosary will be recited there at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

The pallbearers will be John and Herman Sachse, Bob Tomlinson, Al Schuele, John Glancy and William Stevens.

Full particulars of the accident which cost young Durkin's life have not been received here. It is understood that he was enroute from Tucson to Phoenix, Ariz., with a friend when the accident occurred and that the motor car in which they were riding left the highway and crashed.

Thomas Durkin was born and reared on the family farm south of Atchison. He attended St. Patrick's grade school and the Atchison High school. Two years ago he went to Tucson where his brother, John J. Durkin, is editor of a labor paper, the Southwestern Labor Record. Thomas had a part time job in Tucson and was taking a special course at the University of Arizona there.

Surviving besides the parents are his sister, Harriet Evelyn Durkin, of the home; four brothers, John J. Durkin, Tucson, and George, Leo and Robert Wayne Durkin, all of the home, and his maternal grandfather, George P. Cox of the Durkin home.

Leo Durkin

Sept. 2-1985

Leo E. "Pete" Durkin, 62, 1115 Division St., died early Monday at St. Luke's Hospital. He had been in failing health since June.

Prayer services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Sawin-Dyer Chapel, the Rev. Donald Redmond, OSB, officiating. Burial will be at St. Patrick's Cemetery with the presentation of the flag by VFW Post No. 1175. The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 this evening at the funeral home with the rosary being recited at 7:30. Memorial contributions are suggested to the local Kidney Foundation. Pallbearers will be Charles Cline, Tom McClure, Mark Clark, John Durkin, David Durkin and Bob Durkin Jr.

Mr. Durkin was born Aug. 10, 1923, in Atchison, the son of William F. and Harriet A. Cox Durkin. He attended St. Patrick's Grade School and was a graduate of Atchison High School.

He served with the Navy during World War II in the Pacific.

He and Ruth M. Cline were married at St. Patrick's Church on March 2, 1943.

Mr. Durkin was a member of VFW Post No. 1175 where he had served as past commander and district commander.

He was employed in the maintenance department of Pillsbury's in Atchison for 42 years.

Mr. Durkin enjoyed raising horses.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth M. Durkin of the home; six sons, William Durkin, Kansas City, Mo., Russell Durkin, Richard Durkin, Ed Durkin, Pat Durkin and Dan Durkin, Atchison; one daughter, Mary Vandelloo, Atchison; two brothers, George Durkin, Eudora, and Bob Durkin, Atchison; a sister, Harriet Clark, Atchison; 10 grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by four brothers.

APPRECIATION

In behalf of the family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the memorial service.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the
presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

We miss you now,
our hearts are sore
As time goes by
We miss you more
Your loving smile
your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.

The family of Bob Durkin wants to thank the overwhelming number of family and friends for the prayers, phone calls, visits, food, memorials, masses, flowers, cards and mostly for the emotional support we received during this difficult time. Your displays of sympathy will never be forgotten.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.

I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh yes, these things I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up hearts and peace to thee.

God wanted me now; He set me free!

FOOTPRINTS

"Lord. You told me when I decided to follow You,
You would walk and talk with me all the way.

But I'm aware that during the most troublesome times of my life there is only one set of footprints.

I just don't understand why, when I needed You most, You leave me."

He whispered, "My precious child,
I love you and will never leave you...
When you saw only one set of footprints it was then that I carried You."

Lester Marlatt Found Dead Under Tractor

Lester Marlatt, sr., 55, was found dead Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock pinned under a tractor he had been driving on his farm, south of Atchison. The tractor had rolled over a 15-foot bank and the accident is believed to have occurred approximately 10 minutes before the time Mr. Marlatt's body was found.

Funeral arrangements are pending. The Stanton and Stanton mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Born on April 29, west of Atchison, Charles Lester Marlatt was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marlatt. When he was six years of age he moved with his parents to another farm south of town.

MARRIED IN 1919

On February 21, 1919, he was united in marriage with Velda Cox of Atchison. They bought a farm adjoining his father's farm and have made it their home since that time.

Mr. Marlatt was a communicant of the Christian church where he had been a member of the official board for many years. For the past 25 years he had been a member of the school board of the District No. 5 school. He was also a member of the Farm Bureau.

Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Mr. Walter Hinnen, Kansas City, Kas.; three sons, Milton, route 1, S. S-C Lester Marlatt, Norman, Okla., and Roy of the home; a sister, Mrs. James McCoy, route 1; his step-mother, Mrs. Charles Marlatt, route 1; and

Marlatt Rites Tomorrow

Mrs. Valda Marlatt, 65, 1105 Commercial, widow of C. Lester Marlatt, Atchison county farmer, died at 2:30 p.m. Friday at St. Luke's hospital in Kansas City. She entered the hospital two weeks ago yesterday and underwent a major operation last Wednesday. Mrs. Marlatt had been in failing health since July.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Stanton chapel, the Rev. Harold Roberts officiating. Burial will be in the family lot at Mt. Vernon cemetery. The family suggests contributions to the First Christian church building fund.

Mrs. Marlatt was a past deaconess of the church and her late husband was a deacon. She was a member of the Whatsoever class and the Lydia Group of the church. She was also a member of the Business & Professional Women's club and the Terry Home Demonstration unit.

A daughter of George P. Cox and Eva Mae Ashton Cox, Velda Eva Cox was born Feb. 16, 1897 at Goff one of 12 children. When she was seven years old her parents moved to Atchison and the family home was at 905 George. She attended Franklin school.

She was married to C. Lester Marlatt Feb. 21, 1919, at the First Christian church. They lived on farms south of Atchison in the Terry community. Her husband was on the Terry school board many years. He died May 23, 1945.

Prior to her marriage and following her husband's death Mrs. Marlatt was employed at Dilgert's tea room. Her twin sister, Miss Virgie Cox, was employed at the team room over 40 years. After Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dilgert sold the business, Miss Cox opened a snack bar in the Atchison hospital's new building and Mrs. Marlatt was supervisor of the hospital kitchen. They purchased a house at 1105 Commercial from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collins, who moved to Frankfort.

PERSONALS

Miss Velda Cox and Lester Marlatt, whose engagement has been announced in The Globe, were married yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Walter Harmon at the study of the Christian church. The bride was attended by her twin sister, Miss Virgie Cox. The bride has been employed at Dilgert's confectionery and is particularly nice young girl. The groom is a prosperous farmer, and he and his bride have gone to housekeeping in a home he had furnished on his farm south of town.

Dr. and Mrs. Weist, of St. Joe, will spend Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter North. Before her marriage Mrs. Weist was Miss Stella Ireland, and chief operator at the Atchison telephone exchange.

Mrs. Margaret Talle, and her daughter, Elizabeth, of Kansas City will spend tonight and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Talle's niece, Mrs. W. R. Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen, a bride couple from Corning, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fortune, 718 Spruce street. Their marriage occurred Thursday, and the bride was Miss Hope Crandall, school teacher in Corning. The groom is a well to do farmer.

Miss Ruaha Beach, of Chicago, is visiting at the home of her uncle, James Riley.

Mt. Vernon local union No. 175 meets Wednesday, February 25. All members should be present.

Mrs. Marlatt was an outgoing person. Until her illness she cared for friends who were ill and performed other acts of kindness. She often went beyond the limits of her strength to be of service. Many benefited by her gracious and sympathetic nature. She was a devoted, loving mother, dedicated to her family and home.

She leaves her daughter, Mrs. Walter L. (Mary Jeanne) Hinnen, Atchison; three sons, Milton Marlatt and Lester Marlatt, both of route 1, and Roy Marlatt, Wichita; four sisters, Miss Bernice Cox, Atchison, Mrs. Earl Hoffman, Manhattan, and Daisy Clark and Mrs. E.C. Lester Marlatt Found Dead Under Tractor

Mother Of Three Dies

Mrs. Milton Marlatt, 38, route 1, died early this morning at the Atchison hospital. She had been ill several months, and was transferred to the Atchison hospital Thursday from St. Joseph's hospital at St. Joe.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2:30 at the Stanton chapel, the Rev. Harold Roberts, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Vernon cemetery.

Mrs. Marlatt, the former Betty Doll Stout, was born Dec. 7, 1924, in Atchison, a daughter of Fred Stout and the late Mrs. Stout of Cummings. She was graduated from Atchison High school in 1942.

She and Milton Marlatt were married Oct. 8, 1943. They resided on the Marlatt farm four miles south of Atchison.

Mrs. Marlatt was a former community leader for the Float 4-H club, a member of the Terry Home Demonstration unit, and a former member of the advisory committee of the Atchison County Extension Council.

She was a member of the First Christian church, the Friendship Sunday School class and the Christian Women's Fellowship at the church. She was treasurer of the Atchison Flyers' club.

Surviving are Mr. Marlatt and three children, Susan, 17, Priscilla, 15, and Charles Milton Marlatt II, 5, of the home; a sister, Mrs. Thelma Euler, Wichita; two brothers, Lee Stout, Atchison, and Gale Stout, Muskogee, Okla., and her father, Fred Stout, Cummings.

William Thomas, Harry Mier, Tom Monk, Harold Carson, William Davis and Donald Reid will be pallbearers.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 9 tonight at the Stanton mortuary.

At two o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss Betty Stout, daughter of M. and Mrs. Fred Stout, and Milt Marlatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Marlatt, took their marriage vows at the First Christian church parsonage. The Rev. Loyd S. Northcott officiated at the ceremony. The bride, a lovely blonde, wore a powder blue suit with cerise accessories and a shoulder corsage of white gladioli. Miss Betty Jo Eiche was her only attendant and wore a gown with brown accessories. Her carriage was of white gladioli. Penny Meyer, here from Penney Farms, was the groom's best man. Immediately following the ceremony a reception for friends and relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents. A three-tiered wedding cake baked by Mrs. Northcott, sister of the bride, centered the buffet table. Out-of-town guests for the occasion were Mrs. Walter Hinton and children of Kansas City and Miss Layon Wohlgenuth of Leavenworth.

Wesley G. Behee, 83, 1505 Crowell street, driver of the car, was treated and released from the Atchison hospital for injuries to his left arm following the mishap last night.

Behee has been charged with improper passing by investigating authorities here. They gave this account of the fatal mishap:

Behee, driver of a 1965 Chevrolet automobile, was reportedly attempting to pass a camper truck with trailer when he met the northbound Marlatt youth and motorcycle headon more than 300 feet below the crest of a hill on U.S. 73.

The broken 1974 Suzuki motorcycle came to rest 308 feet down the road from the point of impact and the Behee car traveled 256 feet to the west side of the highway. The left front wheel, hood and windshield of the car sustained considerable damage.

According to investigating officers, Marlatt apparently was knocked off his bike and struck the windshield of the car. It was believed that the motorcycle was carried down the road by the car before it stopped on the east side of the highway.

The car had to be towed from the scene by Main Street Auto Parts and friends removed the crumpled motorcycle.

The injured were taken to the Atchison hospital by Atchison Ambulance Service. There were no passengers in Behee's car at the time of accident.

time of the accident was logged at 5:35 p.m. by the investigating officers.

The Marlatt youth was born Oct. 3, 1958, in Atchison. He was to be a senior at Atchison High school next term.

He was a member of the gymnastics team at the school and had lettered the last three years.

When not attending school he assisted his father in farming operations. He was reported en route to a field where his father was combining at the time of the accident.

He recently returned from a high school YMCA camping trip where he was reported as a hard worker. He enjoyed camping and fishing.

He was a member of the First Christian church.

Surviving are his parents, Milton and Annette Marlatt, of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Richard (Susan) Krug, Russell, and Mrs. Vincent (Priscilla) Willmeth, Aurora, Colo.

His mother, Mrs. Betty Stout Marlatt, preceded him in death Sept. 30, 1963.

Albert Cox Dies At 64

Albert C. (Al) Cox, 64, retired chief boatswain's mate of the United States Navy, died at 5:10 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Ft. Leavenworth hospital. He suffered a heart attack Monday night at his home, 937 Atchison, and was taken to the hospital. He was a veteran of both world wars.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Sawin & Dyer chapel. The Rev. Harold Roberts, pastor of the First Christian church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Ft. Leavenworth national cemetery at 2 p.m. Tuesday. Full military rites will be conducted at the grave.

Albert Clarence Cox was born April 12, 1898, at Wetmore, a son of George and Eva May Ashton Cox. He was two years old when his parents moved to Atchison.

After attending the Atchison public schools he enlisted in the navy on Nov. 23, 1916 at the age of 17. He retired on Nov. 25, 1945, after 29 years of service. For many years prior to his retirement he was chief boatswain's mate.

Dec. 19, 1927, he married Miss Hazel Teter at Kansas City.

Besides his wife of the home he leaves five sisters, Miss Bernice Cox and Mrs. Ye-day Martlett, both of Atchison; Mrs. Maude Horton, and Mrs. Daisy Martlett, both of Wichita; and Mrs. Earl Hoffman, Manhattan. Two brothers and four sisters preceded him in death. Mr. Cox was a member of the Fleet Reserve Association, the Retired Officers Association, the Elks lodge at Grand Junction, Colo., and the Odd Fellows lodge of Kansas City, Kas.

Mr. Cox was a friendly, kindly, and charitable man who was devoted to his family and friends and who did a great deal to help others.

Goff... 1953

William Cox was born in Portland, England, Jan. 29, 1861 and died at his home in Corning May 7, at the age of 74 years, four months, 21 days.

At eight he came with his parents, one sister and two brothers to Wetmore, later moving to Bancroft where he grew to manhood.

On Oct. 4, 1887 he was married to Sarah Jane Summers. To this union seven children were born: three daughters and four sons. Earl died in infancy and Robert James in 1920. Those who survive are Mrs. Cora Smirl, Wilsey, Kansas; Mrs. Mabel Turnam, Topeka; Mrs. Ida Hittle, Topeka; Rollie and Terrence, Corning.

Besides the widow and children he also leaves 18 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. One sister, Mrs. Ida Mahler, Goff, and five brothers: Arthur and Fred Cox, Goff; Charles and Harry Cox, Kansas City, Kansas; Geo. Cox, Atchison and many other relatives and friends mourn his passing.

When a small lad in England he was baptized in the Baptist church and remained true to that faith throughout his life. In 1897 he with his family moved to Kelly where for 38 years he was section foreman at the place for the Northwestern railroad.

Mr. Cox was an Odd Fellow for 38 years. He was a kind, loving husband and father and a friend of man. He greatly enjoyed his grandchildren and great-grandchild. And so we will lay our beloved to rest under the green of the sod, where he will sleep his long rest, safe in the arms of God.

The funeral was Thursday afternoon at two in the United Brethren church, Rev. Glenn A. Cain, pastor, conducting, assisted by Rev. R. F. White, pastor of the Methodist church. A mixed quartet, Mrs. Freece Clark, Miss Lois McCabe, Freece Clark and Ray Rankin sang "Beautiful Isle," "Going Down the Valley" and "Sometime We'll Understand." Mrs. H. E. McCabe was at the piano. There were lovely floral tributes from relatives, friends, neighbors and the Odd Fellows. Mrs. Walter Schneider, Miss T. S. Broant and Mrs. Claude

Sarah Jane Cox

Sarah Jane Cox, daughter of the late Benjamin and Elizabeth Summers, was born July 1, 1868 near Wetmore, Kansas and passed away at the home of Mrs. Mary Patterson in Topeka Tuesday morning at the age of 85 years, four months and 17 days. Mrs.

Patterson had cared for her the past five years.

She was married to William Cox, October 4, 1887. They made their home at Corning, Kansas for many years until the death of Mr. Cox on May 2, 1935. She moved to Topeka in 1941 to be near her children.

She is survived by three daughters, Cora Smirl, Santa Ana, California, Mabel Turman, Topeka, and Ida Hittle, Kansas City, Kansas; two sons, Rollie Cox, Corning and Terrance Cox, Topeka; one sister, Mrs. Lizzie Miller, Goff; by twenty-five grandchildren, thirty-one great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of friends. Besides the husband, two sons, James and Earl preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at ten o'clock Thursday morning at the Parker mortuary, Topeka and the body was brought to Goff where services were held at the Goff Methodist Church at two o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. Dull of Topeka officiated. Mr. and Mrs. William Gleason, Mrs. L. J. Stark and Harold Vernon, with Mrs. Robert Sourk at the piano sang, "What a Friend" and "In the Garden." Pallbearers were grandsons of the deceased. Interment was in the family lot in Fairview cemetery.

The Women's Society of Christian Service served lunch to the relatives at noon at Fellowship Hall.

AN UNTIMELY DEATH

Monday evening about 7:30, O. W. Smirl was suddenly taken ill and died in less than fifteen minutes. He was recovering from a light attack of the flu and was getting along in the finest kind of shape, being able to get up and dress and be around the house and feeling fine that evening only a little weak and was lying down on the couch and suddenly went into convulsions. Help was immediately summoned and both of the and the Red Cross nurse from the Grove was in town and she was there and everything possible was done but to no avail. His heart had stopped beating never to work any more.

He was a strong, healthy man just in the prime of his life and if he had an enemy in the world no one in this country knew of it. He was a great favorite with everyone and always done by others as he would have others do by him.

He was a member of the Odd Fellow, Woodman and Workmen lodges and funeral services will be held under their auspices at the Croner Undertaking rooms this afternoon and interment will be in the Wilsey cemetery.

He leaves to mourn his loss countless friends and a wife and five children who are at this time all confined to their home with the influenza.

CORA ALICE SMIRL

BELL, Calif. — Cora Alice Smirl, 83, Bell, died, Wednesday upon arrival at a local hospital.

She was born July 24, 1889.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Theresa M. Wild, Herington, Kan., Thelma May Clark and Lois Jean Riggs, both of Junction City, Kan.; two sons, Walter W. Smirl, Garden Grove, Calif., and Orville Smirl, Bell, Calif.; a brother, Terrance Cox, 5933 NW Green Hills Road., Topeka; a sister, Mrs. Lee Turman, 410 E. Lyman, Topeka; six grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Services will be at the Herington, Kan. First Christian Church at 2 p.m. Sunday. Burial will be in Wilsey Cemetery, Wilsey, Kan. Puryear Mortuary, Herington, is in charge of arrangements.

Jessie Smirl Dies.

The two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Smirl died last Friday night after a week's illness. The little boy became sick just a week ago Friday and gradually grew worse. All that medical skill and loving care could was done for the little fellow but the hot weather along with the disease was too much for him and he passed to the great beyond.

Jessie was a very likeable little fellow and has always been a hale and hearty baby and will be greatly missed by his little brothers, sisters, and playmates of the neighborhood, as well as the bereaved parents, who have the heart felt sympathy of the entire community.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. E. W. Harrison. Interment was made in the Wilsey cemetery.

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

STAFF SGT. LEO EVANS KILLED IN ACTION

Son Of Morris County Couple
Died On April 13 In Germany

Mrs. Leo M. Evans received a telegram from the War Department early this week stating that her husband, Staff Sergeant Evans, had died of wounds received in action in Germany on Friday, April 13. The telegram stated that a letter concerning the details would follow at a later date.

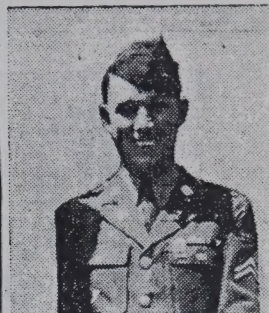

Sergeant Evans, known to his many friends throughout the Wilsey-Delavan community as "Bud", was the son of the late A. E. Evans, and Mrs. Evans, who formerly operated the Cosmo Station at the Mewhinneyville corner east of Delavan. He served in the army for three years during peacetime, and received an honorable discharge. Following the Pearl Harbor incident, however, he re-enlisted, adding three and one-half more years of army service to his record.

Mrs. Evans is the former Miss Lois Jean Smirl, daughter of Mrs. Cora Smirl of Wilsey. Sergeant Evans is also survived by a five-year old son, Max; his mother; a twin sister, Cleo, and one nephew, Donald Neal.

Mrs. Evans, until recently resided in Herington with her sister, Mrs. Walter Wild, and had just gone to Salina, where she expected to reside for the duration.

Word also came to the Smirl and Evans families, Sunday, of the serious illness of Mrs. Evans' brother, Kenneth Smirl, of Bell, Calif. The latter's mother, Mrs. Cora Smirl, and his sister, Mrs. Wild, had gone over the week-end to be with Mrs. Evans and her small son.

Smirl is employed by the Vultee Aircraft Industry at Bell.

S/SGT. LEO M. EVANS, who died April 13, in Germany of wounds received in combat with the ninth armored division, third field artillery battalion. Sergeant Evans served in the army for three years during peacetime and received an honorable discharge. Following the attack on Pearl Harbor he reenlisted, adding three and one-half years more of army service to his record. Sergeant Evans is survived by his wife, the former Miss Lois Jean Smirl, of Wilsey, and their five year old son, Max. He was the son of the late A. E. Evans and Mrs. John Stark of Kansas City, former Salina residents. His twin sister, Mrs. Cleo Neal and her son, Junction City, are the only other immediate relatives. Sergeant Evans trained at Fort Riley, received desert training in California, and went overseas last August from Camp Polk, La.

KILLED IN ACTION

Announcement was made in Wilsey churches yesterday of the death in action overseas of Leo Evans. The latter, who married Jean Smirl of Wilsey, made the supreme sacrifice over Germany during the current month.

Marine Pvt. Silas Completes Recruit Training

Marine Pvt. Lemuel L. Silas, son of Lemuel L. and Emma J. Silas of Chiefland, Florida, recently completed recruit training.

During the training cycle at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, South Carolina, recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical military daily routine, and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

He is a 1992 graduate of Chiefland High School.

Navy Petty Officer Shelton Completes Transit

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Harry M. Shelton, son of Lourdes Pabalan of Old Town, Florida, recently completed a 12-hour and 36-minute transit of the Panama Canal aboard the guided missile frigate USS Elrod, homeported in Charleston, South Carolina for operations in the Eastern Pacific. The ship is currently midway through a two-month deployment.

This will be the ship's first time in the Eastern Pacific. USS Elrod is an Oliver Hazard Perry Class guided missile frigate able to carry out anti-aircraft warfare and anti-submarine warfare. These capabilities allow the ship to fulfill a protection of shipping mission for Marine expeditionary forces, underway replenishment groups and merchant convoys.

The 453-foot frigate carries two helicopters and a crew of 200 sailors. It is armed with missiles, torpedoes and guns.

He joined the Navy in February 1989.

James Robert Cox

Once again the grim reaper has reached out and taken one who was just reaching the prime of young manhood, one who was industrious, honest, cheerful, and with whom the future seemed full of opportunity and service. Such was the death of Jim Cox at the Atchison hospital Monday afternoon. News of his death brought deep regret to everyone who had known him, and respected the busy optimistic character that his life represented. Two weeks ago Monday he was operated on for appendicitis and his improvement seemed certain until complications set up. Last Thursday his condition became critical and the family at once went to his bedside. Death came Monday afternoon.

James Robert Cox was born in Goff, Kansas, on May 19, 1892, and departed this life March 22, 1920, at the age of twenty-seven years, ten months and seventeen days. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cox of Kelly. Besides the parents, of the immediate family there are three sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Cora Smirl of Wilsey, Kansas; Rollie Cox of Goff; Mrs. Mabel Turman of Kelly; Mrs. Ida Hittle of Goff, and Terrance at home, besides many other relatives and a host of friends.

Jim's life had been busy but in spite of hard work his disposition was ever cheery and friendly, and his friends were legion. Most of his years of maturity had been spent in railroad work. He was section foreman of the K.C.N.W. here for nearly a year, he also worked several years as a mechanic in the Atchison shops, and last fall again took a section with the Mo. Pac. and was in charge of the Atchison section when taken ill.

The body was brought to Goff on the noon train Tuesday and taken to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Mrs. E. C. Mahler. Funeral services were conducted from the Christian church in Goff Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Chas. A. Richard gave a splendid sermon and tribute to the life of the deceased. The I. O. O. F. Lodge was in charge of the services and burial. Interment was in the family lot in Fairview beside a baby brother.

To the bereaved parents and family is extended the sincere sympathy of all in their great loss.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is
an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven-
A time for sharing,
a time for caring;
A time for loving,
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
For everything You do
remains forever.

CRITICALLY INJURED IN "HOPPING" TRAIN

April 18 1934
"Billy," 17 Year Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle Cruelly Mangled.

William Hittle, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle of Topeka lost both limbs and will possibly lose both arms as a result of trying to board a moving freight train on the L. K. & W. railroad two miles east of Soldier yesterday afternoon. He is in St. Francis hospital in Topeka and word this morning is that little hope is held for his recovery.

The young man was visiting in the home of his aunt, Mrs. Chas. Perry, and family, who live on a farm near the railroad east of Soldier. With Russell Perry, also about 17 years of age, William went to a neighbor by the name of Armstrong farther east along the track to see about work. A freight train came along and the boys decided to catch a ride part of the way. Just how the Hittle boy fell, and other details are lacking, but word was phoned to relatives here of the cruel extent of the boy's injuries. Several members of the family are expected to arrive in Topeka today.

1352 WILLIAM HITTLE DIES OF INJURIES

At Topcka Hospital Last Thursday Evening—Burial Here.

The injuries suffered by William "Buster" Hittle, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle of Topeka, when struck by a freight train east of Soldier Wednesday of last week, proved fatal and his death occurred a little over 24 hours later at the St. Francis hospital in Topeka, where he was rushed following the accident.

The family formerly lived in this community and the body was brought to the home of the boy's uncle, John Hittle, in Goff Friday morning. Keenest sympathy is felt for the family and relatives of the unfortunate youth. The following story of the boy's life and the accident is furnished by the family:

William F. Hittle, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle of Topeka and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cox of Corning and Mrs. Sarah J. Hittle of Goff, was fatally injured Wednesday afternoon of last week near Soldier when he was struck by a moving train on the L. K. & W. railroad. He and a cousin, Russell Perry, were walking near the track and in some manner William, familiarly known as "Buster," was drawn in the passing train and struck his head against a box car, flung back and hit a cattle guard and rebounded and fell under the wheels, severing one leg, the other foot, cutting two fingers from the left hand. The Perry boy ran for aid and an hour elapsed before the ambulance from Holton arrived, when he was taken to the St. Francis hospital in Topeka.

Two transfusions of blood were given to him, one by his father and the other by an aunt, Mrs. Cora Smirl. He never regained consciousness but passed away Thursday evening at 6:30. The body was brought to Goff Friday and funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

William Franklin Hittle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle, was born May 3, 1917, near Goff and passed away April 19, 1934, in St. Francis hospital, Topeka, at the age of 16 years, 11 months and 16 days.

He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Riley for the past 5 years near Goff. He had been with his parents in Topeka since last December, until the last week, when he had visited his aunt, Mrs. Mary Perry, near Soldier.

He leaves his father and mother; two sisters, Evelyn 18 and Darlene, 4; two brothers, Donald 12 and Gene 9; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cox of Corning and Mrs. Sarah Hittle of Goff; also a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Christian church in Goff. Rev. Glenn A. Cain, pastor of the United Brethren church in Corning, conducted the services. Rev. Cain spoke words of comfort to the ones bowed down with grief and sorrow. A male quartet composed of Harvard Goodrich, Russell James, LeRoy and William Sparling sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Beautiful Land" and "Going Down the Valley." Mrs. Charles Goodrich played the piano.

The pallbearers were cousins, Harold, Kenneth, Harry Lyle and Bernard Smirl.

There were many beautiful floral tributes. Mrs. Ray T. Ingalls and Miss Edith E. Sharpe took care of the flower arrangement. Burial was made in the Fairview cemetery at Goff.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Adkins and daughter, Velma; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Turman and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Summers, Mrs. Cora Smirl and son, Walter, Ed. Starkle and Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, all of Topeka; Wm. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Broadbent, all of Corning; Mrs. Bernice Throne of Blue Rapids; Mrs. Alice Olive of Marysville; and James Forst of Oskaloosa.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends who so willingly assisted us in the hour of our bereavement, by their kind ministrations, tender sympathy and words of comfort, we return our heart-felt thanks

MR. AND MRS. WM. COX.

M. E. Church Notes.

Preaching by the pastor next Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. Other services as usual.

Devotional services again next Wed.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox died at their home near Kelly Wednesday. The funeral services were held at the residence Thursday morning and the remains brought to Goffs for burial.

In Memory of Earl Cox,

Who died January 16, 1901, aged 7 months and 1 day.

"There is a reaper whose name is Death

And with his sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath
And the flowers that grow between."

The flowers are the tokens of earth,
Where the Lord was once a child,
And he called this one to the land of the blest,

Where he will suffer no more.

His memory fondly we'll cherish,
Though his race on earth is run.
Sadly, oh! sadly we miss him,
But His will not ours be done.

We know he now is happy
And free from every care,
But oh! the dreadful parting
Was very hard to bear.

We would not call him back
To suffer here again
But we will hope to meet him
In that land that's free from pain.

We shall see a vacant place on earth
That will nevermore be filled;
Another grave in the church-yard
made
And a voice forever stilled.

We stood beside his dying bed,
And dropped a silent tear,
For we knew the cruel hand of Death
Was quickly drawing near.

We watched the flickering flame of life

Till the last dim spark had fled,
And then in broken accents soft
We whispered "He is dead."

Be patient, loving parents,
Although the trial is hard.

—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox died at their home near Kelly Wednesday. The funeral services were held at the residence Thursday morning and the remains brought to Gaffa for burial.

In Memory of Earl Cox,

Who died January 16, 1901, aged 7 months and 1 day.

"There is a reaper whose name is Death
And with his sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath
And the flowers that grow between."

The flowers are the tokens of earth,
Where the Lord was once a child,
And he called this one to the land of the blest,
Where he will suffer no more.

His memory fondly we'll cherish,
Though his race on earth is run.
Sadly, oh! sadly we miss him,
But His will not ours be done.

We know he now is happy
And free from every care,
But oh! the dreadful parting
Was very hard to bear.

We would not call him back
To suffer here again
But we will hope to meet him
In that land that's free from pain.

We shall see a vacant place on earth
That will nevermore be filled;
Another grave in the church-yard
made

And a voice forever stilled.

We stood beside his dying bed,
And dropped a silent tear,
For we knew the cruel hand of Death
Was quickly drawing near.

We watched the flickering flame of life

Till the last dim spark had fled,
And then in broken accents soft
We whispered "He is dead."

Be patient, loving parents,
Although the trial is hard.
Dear Earl has gone to paradise
To gain a bright reward.

AN UNTIMELY DEATH

Monday evening about 7:30, O. W. Smirl was suddenly taken ill and died in less than fifteen minutes. He was recovering from a light attack of the flu and was getting along in the finest kind of shape, being able to get up and dress and be around the house and feeling fine that evening only a little weak and was lying down on the couch and suddenly went into convulsions. Help was immediately summoned and both of the and the Red Cross nurse from the Grove was in town and she was there and everything possible was done but to no avail. His heart had stopped beating never to work any more.

He was a strong, healthy man just in the prime of his life and if he had an enemy in the world no one in this country knew of it. He was a great favorite with everyone and always done by others as he would have others do by him.

He was a member of the Odd Fellow, Woodman, and Workmen lodges and funeral services will be held under their auspices at the Croner Undertaking rooms this afternoon and interment will be in the Wilsey cemetery.

He leaves to mourn his loss countless friends and a wife and five children who are at this time all confined to their home with the influenza.

Jessie Smirl Dies.

The two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Smirl died last Friday night after a week's illness. The little boy became sick just a week ago Friday and gradually grew worse. All that medical skill and loving care could was done for the little fellow but the hot weather along with the disease was too much for him and he passed to the great beyond.

Jessie was a very likeable little fellow and has always been a hale and hearty baby and will be greatly missed by his little brothers, sisters, and playmates of the neighborhood, as well as the bereaved parents, who have the heart felt sympathy of the entire community.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. E. W. Harrison. Interment was made in the Wilsey cemetery.

FINAL RESTING PLACE

Wilsey Cemetery

Wilsey Kansas

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me

in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life: and I

will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

STAFF SGT. LEO EVANS KILLED IN ACTION

Son Of Morris County Couple
Died On April 13 In Germany

Mrs. Leo M. Evans received a telegram from the War Department early this week stating that her husband, Staff Sergeant Evans, had died of wounds received in action in Germany on Friday, April 13. The telegram stated that a letter concerning the details would follow at a later date.

Sergeant Evans, known to his many friends throughout the Wilsey-Delavan community as "Bud", was the son of the late A. E. Evans, and Mrs. Evans, who formerly operated the Cosmo Station at the Mewhinneyville corner east of Delavan. He served in the army for three years during peacetime, and received an honorable discharge. Following the Pearl Harbor incident, however, he re-enlisted, adding three and one-half more years of army service to his record.

Mrs. Evans is the former Miss Lois Jean Smirl, daughter of Mrs. Cora Smirl of Wilsey. Sergeant Evans is also survived by a five-year old son, Max; his mother, a twin sister, Cleo, and one nephew, Donald Neal.

Mrs. Evans, until recently resided in Herington with her sister, Mrs. Walter Wild, and had just gone to Salina, where she expected to reside for the duration.

Word also came to the Smirl and Evans families, Sunday, of the serious illness of Mrs. Evans' brother, Kenneth Smirl, of Bell, Calif. The latter's mother, Mrs. Cora Smirl, and his sister, Mrs. Wild, had gone over the week-end to be with Mrs. Evans and her small son.

Smirl is employed by the Vultee Aircraft Industry at Bell.

S/SGT. LEO M. EVANS, who died April 13, in Germany of wounds received in combat with the ninth armored division, third field artillery battalion. Sergeant Evans served in the army for three years during peacetime and received an honorable discharge. Following the attack on Pearl Harbor he reenlisted, adding three and one-half years more of army service to his record. Sergeant Evans is survived by his wife, the former Miss Lois Jean Smirl, of Wilsey, and their five year old son, Max. He was the son of the late A. E. Evans and Mrs. John Stark of Kansas City, former Salina residents. His twin sister, Mrs. Cleo Neal and her son, Junction City, are the only other immediate relatives. Sergeant Evans trained at Fort Riley, received desert training in California, and went overseas last August from Camp Polk, La.

KILLED IN ACTION

Announcement was made in Wilsey churches yesterday of the death in action overseas of Leo Evans. The latter, who married Jean Smirl of Wilsey, made the supreme sacrifice over Germany during the current month.

LEO EVANS IS DEAD

Was Staff Sergeant With 9th Armored— Wife and Five-year-old Son Among Survivors

Word has been received by Mrs. Leo M. Evans, 629 North Ninth, of the death of her husband S/Sgt. Leo M. Evans on April 13 in Germany of wounds. He was with the ninth armored division, 3rd field artillery battalion. He is survived by his wife, the former Lois Jean Smirl of Wilsey and a five year old son Max.

Staff Sergeant Evans is the son of the late A. E. Evans and Mrs. John Stark of Kansas City, former Salina residents. His twin sister Mrs. Cleo Neal and her son of Junction City are the only other immediate relatives. Sergeant Evans was trained at Fort Riley, sent from there to California for desert training and then sent overseas last August from Camp Polk, La.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is
an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven—
A time for sharing,
a time for caring—
A time for loving,
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
for everything You do
remains forever.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Obituaries . . .

Frank B. Hittle

Frank B. Hittle died at Bethany Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas, April 7, 1974, at age 81. He had been in failing health the last several months.

Frank was born January 15, 1893, the son of Harvey and Sarah Hittle of Goff. He grew up in the Goff community.

Frank married Ida Grace Cox October 28, 1914. To this union five children were born: Evelyn, William, Donald, Melvin and Darlene. His wife, Ida, son William and grandson, Robert Eugene Thompson, preceded him in death.

Frank worked at Corn Products Refinery in North Kansas City, Mo., for 17 years, retiring when his wife was ill. He made his home the last few years with his daughter, Darlene and family in Edwardsville, Ka.

Survivors include two daughters, Darlene Thompson, Edwardsville, and Evelyn Townsend, Kansas City, Ka.; two sons, Donald Hittle and Melvin Hittle, Kansas City, Ka.; two grandchildren; three sisters, Alice Olive and Alma Wilson of Goff, Mrs. Bernice Throm of Blue Rapids; and one brother, James Hittle of Goff.

Memorial services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Goff United Methodist Church with Rev. Hartman officiating. Burial was at the Fairview Cemetery in Goff.

B51

John D. Townsend

John D. Townsend, 65, 45 S. 19th, died today at St. Margaret Hospital. He was born in Topeka and was a resident of this area 29 years.

Mr. Townsend was a pipe-fitter for the Corn Products Co., North Kansas City, Mo., 26 years, retiring in 1966 due to ill health.

He was a member of the Bonner Springs Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Evelyn Townsend, of the home; a son, John E. Townsend, Bonner Springs; a sister, Mrs. Nona Williamson, 7964 Metropolitan, and one grandson.

Services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at the Fulton-Nickel Chapel.

Burial will be in the Edwardsville Cemetery, Edwardsville. Friends may call at the chapel after 5 p.m. Friday.

CRITICALLY INJURED IN "HOPPING" TRAIN

April 18 1938
"Billy," 17 Year Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle Cruelly Mangled.

William Hittle, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle of Topeka lost both limbs and will possibly lose both arms as a result of trying to board a moving freight train on the L. K. & W. railroad two miles east of Soldier yesterday afternoon. He is in St. Francis hospital in Topeka and word this morning is that little hope is held for his recovery.

The young man was visiting in the home of his aunt, Mrs. Chas. Perry, and family, who live on a farm near the railroad east of Soldier. With Russell Perry, also about 17 years of age, William went to a neighbor by the name of Armstrong farther east along the track to see about work. A freight train came along and the boys decided to catch a ride part of the way. Just how the Hittle boy fell, and other details are lacking, but word was phoned to relatives here of the cruel extent of the boy's injuries. Several members of the Hittle family are expected to arrive in Topeka today.

WILLIAM HITTLE DIES OF INJURIES

At Topeka Hospital Last Thursday Evening—Burial Here.

The injuries suffered by William "Buster" Hittle, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle of Topeka, when struck by a freight train east of Soldier Wednesday of last week, proved fatal and his death occurred a little over 24 hours later at the St. Francis hospital in Topeka, where he was rushed following the accident.

The family formerly lived in this community and the body was brought to the home of the boy's uncle, John Hittle, in Goff Friday morning. Keenest sympathy is felt for the family and relatives of the unfortunate youth. The following story of the boy's life and the accident is furnished by the family:

William F. Hittle, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle of Topeka and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cox of Corning and Mrs. Sarah J. Hittle of Goff, was fatally injured Wednesday afternoon of last week near Soldier when he was struck by a moving train on the L. K. & W. railroad. He and a cousin, Russell Perry, were walking near the track and in some manner William, familiarly known as "Buster," was drawn in the passing train and struck his head against a box car, flung back and hit a cattle guard and rebounded and fell under the wheels, severing one leg, the other foot, cutting two fingers from the left hand. The Perry boy ran for aid and an hour elapsed before the ambulance from Holton arrived, when he was taken to the St. Francis hospital in Topeka.

Two transfusions of blood were given to him, one by his father and the other by an aunt, Mrs. Cora Smirl. He never regained consciousness but passed away Thursday evening at 6:30. The body was brought to Goff Friday and funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

William Franklin Hittle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hittle, was born May 3, 1917, near Goff and passed away April 19, 1934, in St. Francis hospital, Topeka, at the age of 16 years, 11 months and 16 days.

He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Riley for the past 5 years near Goff. He had been with his parents in Topeka since last December, until the last week, when he had visited his aunt, Mrs. Mary Perry, near Soldier.

He leaves his father and mother; two sisters, Evelyn 18 and Darlene, 4; two brothers, Donald 12 and Gene 9; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cox of Corning and Mrs. Sarah Hittle of Goff; also a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Christian church in Goff. Rev. Glenn A. Cain, pastor of the United Brethren church, in Corning, conducted the services. Rev. Cain spoke words of comfort to the ones bowed down with grief and sorrow. A male quartet composed of Harvard Goodrich, Russell James, LeRoy and William Sparling sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Beautiful Land" and "Going Down the Valley." Mrs. Charles Goodrich played the piano.

The pallbearers were cousins, Harold, Kenneth, Harry Lyle and Bernard Smirl.

There were many beautiful floral tributes. Mrs. Ray T. Ingalls and Miss Edith E. Sharpe took care of the flower arrangement. Burial was made in the Fairview cemetery at Goff.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Adkins and daughter, Velma, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Turman and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Summers, Mrs. Cora Smirl and son, Walter, Ed. Starkle and Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, all of Topeka; Wm. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Broadbent, all of Corning; Mrs. Bernice Throne of Blue Rapids; Mrs. Alice Olive of Marysville; and James Forst of Oskaloosa.

ROBERT E. THOMPSON

Edwardsville Man Killed In Action ^{B551}

Private First Class Robert E. Thompson, 203 S. Fifth, Edwardsville, was killed in action May 4. He was earlier reported missing in action.

Chester M. Sourk.

Chester Monroe Sourk was born May 17, 1861, in Stark county, Illinois. Died at Goff, Kansas, December 26, 1912, aged 51 years, 7 months, and 9 days. The immediate cause of his death was the third stroke of apoplexy. In October, 1911, he had a stroke, but it was so light he did not know what it was. In August of this year he had another and harder stroke and since that time his health had been poor, but for a few weeks past he was feeling some better and while the family was convinced he could never be well again it was thought he might live for a few years at least. He had been out during Christmas day and had eaten dinner with the family. About 8:00 o'clock in the evening he was taken worse complained of a pain in the back of his head. The doctor was summoned and it was thought he was easier and went to sleep. At 2:00 o'clock it was discovered he had passed away. He was married April 3, 1859 to Miss Harriet Cox, near Bancroft. To this union two children were born, Chester, Jr., who is married but continued to live with his father, and Miss Ada, 16 years old. His wife died in 1900, but like the true father he was, kept the children together, hiring a family to stay at the farm to help with the farm and house work. He came to Kansas in 1880 and has lived in his immediate vicinity ever since. He was a member of the Christian church and of the Odd Fellows and the Woodmen. Besides his own family he is survived by seven brothers and sisters, William M. and Misses Addie and Mattie, who still live on the old homestead, near Goff; J. S. and Geo. W. Sourk, and Mrs. Della Campbell all of Goff, and J. L. Sourk, of Seneca. The entire family of eight children have stayed near the old home farm. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Christian church, at Goff, conducted by Rev. C. A. Richards and the Odd Fellows. Burial was made by the side of his wife in Fairview cemetery. He leaves a number of relatives and a host of friends who feel the loss of their relative and a good, upright, honorable citizen.

Death of Harriet Sourk.

At half past 5 o'clock yesterday evening, Harriet, wife of Chester M. Sourk passed away after a lingering illness of some two weeks duration of rheumatism of the heart. The best medical skill proved of no avail. The deceased leaves a family consisting of husband and two small children also a father and mother and three brothers to mourn her taking away, as well as a large circle of friends and acquaintances who admired her for many womanly virtues. She was a member of the Baptist church in good standing. The funeral obsequies will be held in the Christian church here tomorrow, at two o'clock P. M., conducted by T. E. Rolfe of Granada, and interment take place at Fair View cemetery.

Moulden

Patricia G. "Pat" Moulden, 74, of Holton, passed away Monday, Feb. 21, 2011, at her home after a courageous battle with ALS.

She was born September 8, 1936, at her grandparents' farmhouse just outside of Goff, the daughter of Charlie L. and Opal A. Sourk Pittenger.

She graduated from Soldier High School in 1954. On October 31, 1954 in Holton, she married her high school sweetheart, Everett C. Moulden. Early in their marriage, Everett joined the Navy, and as the dutiful Navy wife, she traveled with him to multiple duty stations for 20 years. They eventually made their home in Holton.

Pat was a homemaker and had worked for Slimaker Dress Factory in Holton and Pyramid Garment Factory in Onaga. She later worked for Jackson County Road and Bridge, retiring after 19 years. She worked at the Senior Center in Holton after retirement.

Pat had been a member of the Soldier United Methodist Church and the VFW Ladies' Auxiliary in Holton. She was an avid bowler and participated in many state and national tournaments. She loved camping and her later years were spent in full-time RV'ing, spending the last 12 winters in south Texas. She was a dedicated sports fan and strongly supported Jackson Heights and Holton teams.

Survivors include her husband, Everett, of the home; her mother, Opal Pittenger, of Holton; her sons, Mark Moulden (Tammy) of Holton and Mickeal Moulden (Peggy) of Fort Worth, Texas; her daughter, Tracy Farmer of O'Fallon, Mo.; her sisters, Ina Grace Bryan (Richard) of Kansas City and Phyllis Scott (Bob) of Holton; her brother, Steve Pittenger (Barb) of Lawrence; her grandchildren, Jessica, Jared, Joshua, Blake Moulden, Audrey Moulden (fiancé Brian Cox) and Jordan Farmer; and great-grandchildren, Maggie Jo and Beau Allen Moulden. She was preceded in death by her father, Charlie; and a brother, Rex Pittenger.

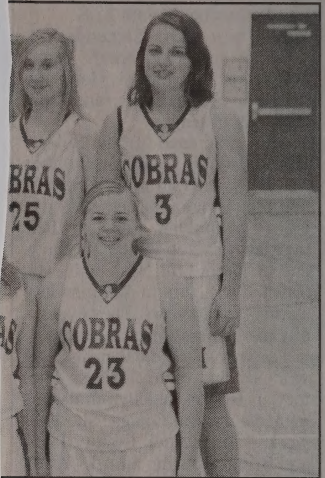

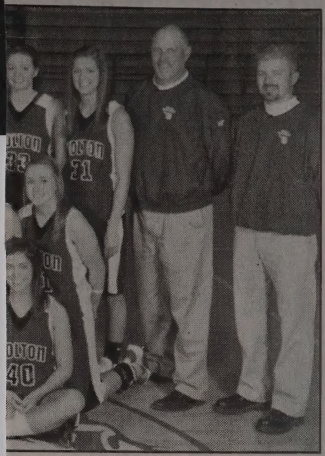

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 24, at Mercer Funeral Home in Holton. Interment will be in Olive Hill Cemetery west of Holton. The family will greet friends from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Jackson County Senior Center, sent in care of Mercer Funeral Home, P.O. Box 270, Holton, KS 66436.

MERCER FUNERAL HOME

The following eulogy was composed by members of Ruby Sourk's family and written by four of her granddaughters; Brenda, Connie, Judy, and Jackie.

Ruby Marie Porter Sourk was born June 21, 1916 in Wetmore, Kansas. She was the daughter of William and Ada Sourk Porter. She attended West Powhattan Grade School and graduated from Wetmore High School in 1933.

Ruby was married to Gerald F. Sourk on December 20, 1933. Gerald and Ruby have spent their entire life in the Goff community, where they raised eight children, six daughters and two sons.

Like her husband Gerald, Ruby contributed a great deal of her life to community activities. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, the United Methodist Women, Goff Chapter #439 - Eastern Star, Goff Woman's Club, Goff Commercial Club, and Card Club. She held offices in all of these organizations. Ruby was always ready and willing to give the extra time and effort to make them all successful.

In addition to her community activities, she took great pride in her work at home. Ruby had a special touch when it came to gardening. Many wonderful hours were spent tending to the colorful flower beds that adorned her yard. She spent many enjoyable hours caring for her beautiful flowers and plants. Her garden was always meticulously cared for, and each year she was anxious to share her harvest with family and friends. Many joyous hours were spent in her kitchen canning with her daughters, and at times, she even managed to convince her granddaughters to help out. Year after year, we remember dressing chickens, canning corn, and making her famous applesauce. Even though Ruby shared her cooking talents and special recipes with her family and friends, nothing ever measured up to the food prepared by her hands.

In her free time, Ruby vastly enjoyed playing pitch . . . and winning! A bowl of popcorn, a glass of Dr. Pepper, and a good pitch game is something all of us can fondly remember.

Though Ruby gave much of her time to the Goff community, nothing was more important to her than the closeness she shared with her husband and family.

This was always evident as her family continuously found reasons to join together for a family dinner. She never allowed miles to separate the love and closeness of her family. Christmas Eve's were especially memorable at the Sourk home. Each year, following tradition, the family of approximately 48 gathered at Ruby and Gerald's to exchange gifts, sing songs, enjoy great food, and treasure our togetherness.

Gerald and Ruby have always followed the events of their children and grandchildren. They spent many nights attending ballgames, plays, concerts, and other activities. It always meant something special to look in the crowd and know they were there.

Ruby's children often called on her for help in the raising of their own families, as they always saw their mother as the ideal mother and a strong role model. Gerald and Ruby were always there whenever their children needed them.

Though we could never list all of the special and wonderful memories we have of Ruby, there are some that are foremost in our memory: the special wedding anniversaries, birthday parties, family dinners, weddings, graduations, July 4th at Goff, and the many visits and phone calls.

Most of all, we will remember Ruby as a devoted wife, a loving mother, a special friend, and the best grandmother ever. She had a quiet strength and showed an unconditional love to all who were fortunate enough to be a part of her life.

Ruby Marie Porter Sourk, rural Goff, died late Monday night, October 23rd, of an apparent heart attack.

Ruby is survived by her husband, Gerald F. Sourk. Other survivors include six daughters, Doris Oxandale, Wetmore; Beverly Sourk, Topeka; Beth Clowe, Wetmore; Sue Heaton, Holton; Nancy Gosling, Goff; and Linda White, Flower Mound, Texas, two sons, Gerald E. Sourk, Lenexa; Dr. Charles Sourk, Scott City, 19 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren. One grandson preceded her in death.

She is also survived by one sister, Betty Bartley, Sun City, Arizona; and two brothers, Eddie Porter, Wetmore; and Bill Porter, Shawnee Mission.

Besides the relatives, Mr. Cox had many friends in this community who join with the family in respect to his memory.

Harry Cox was the youngest of the four living children when they came to this community in 1870. He was five years of age and was born in London England, in 1865. The father first came to America in 1868 and homesteaded the farm a mile east of Bancroft, where the Chas. Perry family live, and which is owned by F. J. Cox of Goff. The family joined the father two years later. Here the other children were born and the subject of this sketch grew to manhood. When a young man he went to Riley county near Leonardville and there met and married Fannie Elizabeth Cox, who survives, together with three daughters, Mrs. Alice Carr, Bethel, Kansas; Mrs. Amy Massey, Goff; Mrs. Rosa Ada Rosine, Kansas City; and three sons, Harry, Jr., of the home in Kansas City and Raymond and Charles of Bethel. There are also two other brothers, Charley of Kansas City and George of Atchison, besides many other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hary Cox farmed in Riley county for a time, then returned to Nemaha county and farmed the old Fred Schumaker place west of Bancroft for a time. Later they farmed the place west of Goff where the Jesse Longacre family live. More than a third of a century ago Mr. Cox gave up farming and started to work on the section of the old Kansas City Northwestern as a hand. He later served as foreman at Kelly and Seneca and was later promoted to yard master of the K. C. N. W. in Kansas City, Kansas. He later resigned that position and was appointed general track foreman for the old Metropolitan street railway system (later the Public Service Co.) in Kansas City, Kansas. He held this job until the infirmities of age compelled his retirement.

Funeral services were held at the home of the daughter at Bethel, Kansas, Monday morning at 8 o'clock and the body was brought to Goff to be laid to rest beside the son and daughter, who had preceded him in death. Many relatives from Kansas City and Atchison and of this community accompanied the body to its final resting place. Members of the Eagles lodge of Kansas City also accompanied the funeral cortege. Mr. Cox was also a member of the old Seneca Old Fellow lodge, now combined with the Oneida lodge.

"AT REST"

May Cox was born at Leonardville Kansas, May 2nd 1891, and departed this life at her home in Kansas City, Kansas, March 23, 1909, at 7:45 A. M., aged seventeen years, ten months and twenty one days.

Mr and Mrs Harry Cox, parents of the deceased, formerly lived in this vicinity, moving to Kansas City about four years ago.

The deceased had been sick about 5 months, during which time she was a patient sufferer. She knew her time had come and was ready to meet the call. She said she could see the angels beckoning to her. She told them she would be with them tomorrow. She told her parents they had done all they could for her; calling her sisters and brothers, she bid them all good-bye. She was an employee at the Mitchell Dry Goods Store at Kansas City up to until the time of her sickness, loved by all who knew her.

The remains were brought here from Kansas City, Wednesday. Funeral was held at the christian church, Thursday at 10 o'clock A. M., conducted by Rev. D. N. Rose of Corning. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

The deceased leaves a father, mother, three sisters, four brothers, other relatives and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

"Over the line, hear the sweet refrain.

Angels are chanting the Heavens strain;

Over the line why should I remain.

With a step between me and Jesus!.

Card of thanks.

To the many friends in and around

FRED COX1953

The death of Fred Cox takes another of the few remaining natives of southeast Nemaha county whose birth was in the early days of settlement. Born of a pioneer family near Bancroft more than 80 years ago, his entire life has been closely associated with the intimate affairs of progress. A citizen of Goff since 1896, he was section foreman and division track inspector all his active years.

He served many years on the Goff city council, and was active in the Woodman and Odd Fellow fraternities and gave a full measure of community service. Since his retirement a number of years ago, he has looked after his farm interests, and endeavored to meet the frailties of age with cheerfulness and poise. The devotion of the daughter and her frequent visits were especially bright spots in his later years.

Frederick John Cox was born on June 28, 1871 in Bancroft and died at his home in Goff, Saturday, August 8 after having been in failing health for a long time. He was married to Gretta Okeson Dec. 25, 1897. They had two children, Marvel, of Topeka, and a son who died in infancy. Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Ada Mahler, a brother, Arthur Cox and sister-in-law, Millie Okeson all of Goff, and many nieces and nephews. His wife preceded him in death in 1934. Mr. Cox has lived in Goff since 1896.

Funeral services were Monday at the Goff Methodist church with the Rev. C. E. Nash officiating. Harold Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. William Gleason, Jr. and Mrs. Herman Rainey, accompanied by Mrs. L. J. Stark, sang "In The Garden." Pallbearers were Clyde Sourk, Wayne Sourk, Rollie Cox, Harry Scott, Gene and Jim Scott. Interment was in the family lot in Fairview cemetery.

Cora Rozine

Services for Cora Rozine, 85, of Ft. Collins, Colo., formerly of Kansas City, Kan., were held Jan. 17 at Plymouth Congregational Church in Ft. Collins.

Burial was in the Grandview Cemetery in Ft. Collins. Memorial gifts may be made to the American Heart Association in care of the Goodrich Chapel.

Mrs. Rozine died Jan. 12, 1989, at the Poudre Valley Hospital in Ft. Collins. She was born in St. John, Kan., and had lived in KCK for 32 years. She was a homemaker. Mrs. Rozine was a member of the Plymouth Congregational Church, a past president of Wyandotte High School PTA (1955-56), and a member of the Council of Clubs in KCK.

Surviving are her husband, John Rozine of the home; three sons, John J. Rozine Jr., Shawnee, James P. Rozine, KCK, and Donald R. Rozine, Waverly; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

FRED COX

Obituary.

The Angel of Death has brought bereavement to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox. Last Saturday morning their only child, Leslie B., was taken from them to the eternal home. The little one had been ill with a cold a few days and apparently was better until a lung affection developed. The four months of its life made the home full of cheer; now that sorrow has come, the community sympathizes with the parents. The funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon at the home by Rev. Alexander Bennett, a large company of relatives and friends attending.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox wish by this means to express their gratitude and thanks to the kind friends for their assistance during the illness and death of their beloved baby, Leslie.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is
an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven-
A time for sharing,
a time for caring;
A time for loving;
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.

Arthur Albert Cox

Arthur Albert Cox was born in Bancroft, Kansas November 13, 1874 to Mr. and Mrs. George King Cox. This English family, with twelve children, lived for many years on a homestead east of Bancroft.

In 1902 Mr. Cox came to Goff with his young wife Lenna Colton Cox and made his home here ever since.

To them were born two girls, Emma Coffelt, deceased, and Elsie Cox of the home. After the death of his wife, he married Mrs. Fina Coffelt, and after her death he continued to make his home in Goff with his daughter, Elsie.

Mr. Cox had been in poor health for several years. He died in Seneca Hospital Sunday, July 31, 1955.

He leaves an immediate family of one daughter, Elsie, of the home and one grandson, Ray Dean Coffelt of Parkville, Missouri, one sister, Mrs. Ada Mahler of Goff. He is also survived by two step daughters, Mrs. William Wooster of Bonner Springs, Kansas and Mrs. Ocie Miller of Atchison, Kansas, one great granddaughter, Jeanie Kay Coffelt of Parkville, Missouri, and a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Goff Methodist Church, Rev. Gene Connely of the Wetmore Methodist Church officiating. Mrs. L. J. Stark and Miss Jeanette Brammer, with Mrs. Robert Sourk at the piano, sang "Every Palaces," and "Beyond the Sunset." Pallbearers were: Clyde Sourk, Wayne Sourk, Harry Scott, Bill Porter, C. J. Lippincott, and

J. G. Hendershot. Interment was in the family lot in Fairview cemetery.

Relatives here from a distance to attend the service were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dean Coffelt and Deannie Kay, and Mrs. Myrtle Hawkins, Parkville, Mo.; Mrs. Charles Cox, Marvin Cox, and Mrs. Marlene Babcock, Kansas City; Mrs. Lizzie Cox, Mrs. Amy Massey and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Carr, Bethel, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. William Worcester, Bonner Springs, Kansas; Miss Virgie Cox, Mrs. Milton Marlott and daughter, Susan Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox and Mrs. Velda Marlott, Atchison; Miss Marvel Cox, Mrs. Terrence Cox and Mrs. Juanita Broadbent, Lee Turman and Mrs. Lloyd B. Death of Mrs. A. A. Cox.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock Thursday evening October 5, 1908, Mrs. A. A. Cox passed away at her home in Goff after a lingering illness of over four years duration. The ravages of the two diseases, consumption and bright's disease, with which she had suffered all this time had rendered her a helpless invalid for over a year past, and her death had been momentarily expected.

Lenna V. Colton was born near Circleville, Kansas, July 27, 1872. She was married to Arthur A. Cox, at Goff, Kansas, in February 1900, when she had two children, (Emma and Elsie) her sister and two brothers are left to mourn her loss. The leaving of her two little girls motherless is a terrible task, away extremely sad and they will miss her tender ministrations. Her husband, who was a kind and loving man, will miss her dearly.

Her husband could possibly do to render her life peaceful and pleasant was done, and no means untried which might effect a prolongation of her life if not a permanent relief from the maladies with which she suffered.

Deceased was an exceptionally dutiful wife and mother, and revered by all for her benevolent traits of character. In early youth she joined the Baptist church at Circleville and continued a conscientious and consistent communicant of that faith through life.

Funeral was at the Christian church here, Saturday, at 2 o'clock p.m., and was attended by a large concourse of people. The services were conducted by Rev. Daugherty, Baptist minister at Wetmore. Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

The coffin was borne by the family.

OBITUARY.

Lenna V. Colton was born July 27, 1872 near Circleville, Kans., and died at her home in Goff, Kans., October 5, 1908, age 36 years, 2 months and 12 days. She was married to Arthur Cox in February 1900. To this union was born two children, Elsie and Emma. She leaves to mourn her loss a loving husband, two children, two brothers, one sister and a host of sorrowing friends. The deceased united with the Baptist church in Circleville, Kans., in her youth and ever lived a christian life. The funeral services were conducted at the Christian church Saturday, afternoon, October 10, at 2 o'clock p.m. after which the remains were taken to rest in the Fairview cemetery at Wetmore, Kansas.

kind words, and pure life was the balm of that parental home. While the husband mourns the loss of a loving kind and sympathetic wife, the children will miss the wise counsel of a Godly mother. But we cannot call her back. But we can go to be with her in the realm of glory. —Robert Daugherty, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Wetmore, Kans.

Death of Mrs. A. A. Cox.

This community was shocked early Thursday morning by the death of Mrs. A. A. Cox at their home in Goff at 5:10 that morning. She had been ill with a severe cold since the first of the year, and a relapse the past week hastened her death. Mrs. Cox was quite large and her heart was weak.

Fina A. Swofford was born in Missouri on March 13, 1873, and would have been fifty-three years of age next March. She was married in Missouri to William E. Coffelt when a young woman. To them were born five children, Wm. R. and John E., Mrs. Veta M. Worcester and Mrs. Ocie L. Miller, all of Goff, one son dying in infancy. The family moved to Goff August 1, 1914. Mr. Coffelt died July 12, 1916.

In 1917 she was married to A. A. Cox of Goff. Mrs. Cox was a kind mother and a good neighbor and the husband, children and family have the sincere sympathy of all in their sorrow. Funeral services will be held at the Christian church in Goff Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and interment in Fairview. Dr. Clutter will give the sermon.

Once again the hearts of this community go out to a family in the loss of husband, father and brother. Ray Coffelt died at the Pawnee City hospital at 5:20 Monday morning from Bright's disease, after several weeks critical illness. He was a friendly man and had tried hard all his life to fulfill his duties as father, son and brother. He met the trials and hard work of life with a cheerful nature and besides his loved ones leaves many friends with pleasant memories of his love and friendship.

William Raymond Coffelt, eldest son of William and Fina (Swafford) Coffelt, was born June 26, 1898, at Rayville, Mo., and died April 20, 1936, at the age of 37 years, 9 months and 24 days. He came to Goff with his parents August 1, 1914, and that same year was baptized by Rev. Chas. A. Richard as a member of the Goff Christian church. He graduated from the 8th grade of the Goff schools.

On May 23, 1918, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Cox at Seneca. One son, Melvin Ray Dean, was born to them. Mrs. Coffelt died May 24, 1927.

On June 20, 1935, he was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle Carmony at Seneca. To this union three children were born, Margery Jean, 8 years of age; Roberta Lee, 3 years and Betty Jane 11 months. Besides the wife and children, he leaves one brother, John Coffelt of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Veta Worchester of Goff and Mrs. Ocie Miller of Holton; also three nieces, five nephews, other relatives and many friends.

The body was brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. William Worchester in Goff Tuesday afternoon.

Following illness at his home near America City, he was taken to Pawnee City hospital on March 20, where his illness was pronounced Bright's disease. All that medical care and loving kindness could give could not prevail and at 5:20 Monday morning of this week life departed.

Funeral service was held at the Nazarene church in Goff Wednesday at 2 p. m. Rev. R. E. Tabor, the pastor, gave a comforting sermon. Music was by a mixed quartet, Miss Eva Heald, Mrs. George Sauers, Harvard Goodrich and Rev. R. E. Tabor, with Mrs. L. J. Stark at the piano.

Palbearers were old friends, Chester Heald, Walter Snodgrass, Isaac Camp, Chester Sourk, E. L. Clelland and J. M. Hill, all members of the Goff IOOF lodge, in which the deceased had been a member for many years, and filled all the offices. He was also a member of the Rebekah order. Interment was in Fairview cemetery, with the Odd Fellows in charge.

Among the relatives here from a distance were Mrs. Ocie Miller and children of Holton; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Little, Helen, Evelyn, Rita and Henry, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carmony and family of Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartley, Mrs. Dolm Stratton and Mrs. Owens of Manhattan.

Mrs. Ray Coffelt.

A death that touched the hearts of all in this community, was that of Mrs. Ray Coffelt at Christ's Hospital at four o'clock last Saturday afternoon. For three weeks Mrs. Coffelt had been critically ill and the family and friends had hoped for recovery, altho her condition gave but little hope.

Emma Cox was born December 30, 1899 at Kelly, and departed this life May 14, 1924, at the age of 24 years, 4 months and 24 days. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cox. Her mother died when she was but eight years old, and with her father and sister Elsie, she made her home with her Grandmother Cox and aunt, Mrs. E. C. Mahler. She attended the Goff schools. In 1914 she joined the Christian Church at Goff and was baptized by Rev. Chas. A. Richard. To her Christian faith she has remained faithful and said previous to her death that she was ready to go at the Lord's command.

On May 23th, she was married to Ray Coffelt of Goff, at Seneca. To them was born one son, Melvin Ray Dean. She is survived by the husband, son, father, sister, and many other relatives and a host of friends.

The body was brought to Goff Sunday, and to their home in Goff. Funeral services at the Methodist church in Goff Monday afternoon at three were in charge of Rev. W. B. Stevenson of Wetmore. A quartet composed of Mrs. McManis, Mrs. Goodrich, Mr. Holston and Mr. Goodrich, with Miss Lela Sourk, a pianist, furnished fitting hymns. Pall bearers were Walter and Leon Thieme, Jos. McDonnell, Jack Riley, Owen Followell and Frank Holt. Interment was beside the mother in the family lot in Fairview.

Emma was the type of girl whose pleasant smile and pleasing ways made her liked by all, and the sincere sympathy goes to the young husband, little son, father, sister and all the relatives in their sorrow.

Relatives from a distance here for the services were Chas. Cox,

A death that touched the hearts of all in this community, was that of Mrs. Ray Coffelt at Christ's Hospital at four o'clock last Saturday afternoon. For three weeks Mrs. Coffelt had been critically ill and the family and friends had hoped for recovery, altho her condition gave but little hope.

Emma Cox was born December 30, 1899 at Kelly, and departed this life May 14, 1924, at the age of 24 years, 4 months and 25 days. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cox. Her mother died when she was but eight years old, and with her father and sister Elsie, she made her home with her Grandmother Cox and aunt, Mrs. E. C. Mahler. She attended the Goff schools. In 1914 she joined the Christian Church at Goff and was baptized by Rev. Chas. A. Richard. To her Christian faith she has remained faithful and said previous to her death that she was ready to go at the Lord's command.

On May 28th, she was married to Ray Coffelt of Goff, at Seneca. To them was born one son, Melvin Ray Dean. She is survived by the husband, son, father, sister, and many other relatives and a host of friends.

The body was brought to Goff Sunday, and to their home in Goff. Funeral services at the Methodist church in Goff Monday afternoon at three were in charge of Rev. W. B. Stevenson of Wetmore. A quartet composed of Mrs. McManis, Mrs. Goodrich, Mr. Holston and Mr. Goodrich, with Miss Lela Sourk, accompanist, furnished fitting hymns. Pall bearers were Walter and Leon Thieme, Jos. McDonnall, Jack Riley, Owen Followell and Frank Holt. Interment was beside the mother in the family lot in Fairview.

Emma was the type of girl whose pleasant smile and pleasing ways made her liked by all, and the sincere sympathy goes to the young husband, little son, father, sister and all the relatives in their sorrow.

Relatives from a distance here for the services were Chas. Cox, wife and son of Kansas City.

Once again the hearts of this community go out to a family in the loss of husband, father and brother. Ray Coffelt died at the Pawnee City hospital at 5:20 Monday morning from Bright's disease, after several weeks critical illness. He was a friendly man and had tried hard all his life to fulfill his duties as father, son and brother. He met the trials and hard work of life with a cheerful nature and besides his loved ones leaves many friends with pleasant memories of his love and friendship.

William Raymond Coffelt, eldest son of William and Fina (Swafford) Coffelt, was born June 26, 1898, at Rayville, Mo., and died April 20, 1936, at the age of 37 years, 9 months and 24 days. He came to Goff with his parents August 1, 1914, and that same year was baptized by Rev. Chas. A. Richard as a member of the Goff Christian church. He graduated from the 8th grade of the Goff schools.

On May 23, 1918, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Cox at Seneca. One son, Melvin Ray Dean, was born to them. Mrs. Coffelt died May 24, 1924, at her home.

On June 20, 1935, he was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle Carmony at Seneca. To this union three children were born, Margery Jean, 8 years of age; Roberta Lee, 3 years and Betty Jane 11 months. Besides the wife and children, he leaves one brother, John Coffelt of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Veta Worcester of Goff and Mrs. Ocie Miller of Holton; also three nieces, five nephews, other relatives, and many friends.

The body was brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. William Worcester in Goff Tuesday afternoon.

Following illness at his home near America City, he was taken to Pawnee City hospital on March 26, where his illness was pronounced Bright's disease. All that medical care and loving kindness could give could not prevail and at 5:20 Monday morning of this week life departed.

Funeral service was held at the Nazarene church in Goff Wednesday at 2 p. m. Rev. R. E. Tabor, the pastor, gave a comforting sermon. Music was by a mixed quartet, Miss Eva Heald, Mrs. George Sauers, Harvard Goodrich and Rev. R. E. Tabor, with Mrs. L. J. Stark at the piano.

Pallbearers were old friends, Chester Heald, Walter Snodgrass, Isaac Camp, Chester Sourk, E. L. Clelland and J. M. Hill, all members of the Goff IOOF lodge, in which the deceased had been a member for many years, and filled all the offices. He was also a member of the Rebekah order. Interment was in Fairview cemetery, with the Odd Fellows in charge.

Among the relatives here from a distance were Mrs. Ocie Miller and children of Holton; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Little, Helen, Evelyn, Rita and Henry, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carmony and family of Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartley, Mrs. Dola Stratton and Mrs. Owens of Powhattan.

Relatives from a distance here for the services were Chas. Cox, wife and son of Kansas City; George Cox and wife of Atchison; Wm Cox, wife and son, Terrance; Mrs. Mabel Turman and children, Frank Hittle and fami-

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake . . . Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over . . . DEATH OF BOBBY WORCESTER

The death of Bobby Worcester, invalid son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Worcester at their home in Goff Wednesday of last week, was one that touched the heart strings of all who know the family. Little Bobby had been a helpless invalid since birth more than eighteen years ago, yet he had received the love, care and devotion of the parents, sister, relatives and friends throughout his life. To the mother, especially, fell the care of the son, and throughout those years, as now, goes public praise for many days and years of constant self sacrifice prompted by that strongest of ties—mother love.

Robert Eldon, eldest son of William and Veta (Coffelt) Worcester, was born in Goff, Kansas, on October 19, 1918, and passed away at his home here on February 17, 1937, at the age of 18 years, 3 months and 29 days. Besides the parents, he is survived by one sister, Charlene, and a younger brother, Billy.

Mrs. O. V. Collins of Goff, ordained Christian minister, conducted the funeral service and gave the sermon at the Christian church in Goff Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. Mrs. L. J. Stark sang two fitting hymns, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. F. O. Brown. Pallbearers were high school boys of about the same age as Bobby: Melvin and Harley Johnson, Bob Christian, Keith Collins, Van Gates, Wayne Sourk. Interment was in Fairview.

The Advance joins the many friends of the family in sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

Health Causes Man to Kill Himself

Atchison, Kan., May 29.—Gilbert Stark, 45, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Company here, committed suicide late last evening by drinking poison. Stark had been ill for some time and that is attributed as the cause. He locked himself in his bedroom and after several hours was found by his wife in a dying condition. He leaves a wife and two young children.

DEATH OF CHARLEY MILLER
 Friends as well as relatives in Holt regretted to learn of the death of Charley Miller in Holt Saturday. The Miller family lived in Goff for several years, while he was employed at the plant. Mr. Miller had not been in rugged health for several years, since a severe abscess on the head. At that time he received treatment at Mayo Bros. in Rochester, Minn.

Charles Miller, youngest son of Robert and Pearl (Childs) Miller, was born Sept. 10, 1902, at Sabetha, Kansas and died Jan. 30, 1937, at Holt, Kansas, at the age of 34 years, 4 months and 20 days. He spent his childhood on a farm south of Sabetha and when a young man united with the Methodist church. On Feb. 10, 1920, he enlisted in the army at Jefferson barracks, Mo., and served three years in Panama. On Aug. 17, 1923, he was united in marriage to Miss Ocie Goff at Holt, Kansas. To this union was born three children, Charles Eugene, Jack Leon and Wilbur Dale, all of the home. Besides his wife and children, he is survived by his father, Robert Miller, of Mayetta; stepmother, Sadie Miller; two brothers, Edward and Arthur of Holt; and one half-sister, Carrie Margaret, of Mayetta; also three nieces and three nephews, other relatives and a host of friends.

Charley, as he was familiarly called by his friends, was a friendly man and did his best to fulfill his duties as father and husband. He met the trials and difficulties of life cheerfully, and his relatives and friends have only pleasant memories of his love and friendship among them.

Charley was taken ill with pneumonia a little over a week ago, and all that the physician and loving hands could do for him was done, but to no avail, and, Charley went to his perfect rest.

The funeral service was held at the Mercer Funeral Home Monday, Feb. 21, at 2:00 p. m., conducted by Rev. Alfred Tebben, with music furnished by Miss Christina Stoll. The body was laid to rest in the Holt cemetery. Pallbearers were Ray Gray

Ocie Wheeler

Ocie Louise Wheeler, 81, 807 Santa Fe Place, died this morning, Sept. 28, 1988, at Cray Manor.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Becker-Stanton Mortuary.

Survivors include four sons, Charles E. Miller, West Columbia, S.C.; Jack L. Miller, Topeka, Dale Miller, Atchison, and Gary Wheeler, Smithville, Mo.; eight grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Charles Miller, youngest son of Robert and Pearl (Childs) Miller, was born Sept. 10, 1902, at Sabetha, Kansas and died Jan. 30, 1937, at Holton, Kansas, at the age of 34 years, 4 months and 20 days. He spent his childhood on a farm south of Sabetha and when a young man united with the Methodist church. On Feb. 10, 1920, he enlisted in the army at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.; and served three years in Panama. On Aug. 17, 1923, he was united in marriage to Miss Ocie Corbett at Holton, Kansas. To this union was born three children, Charles Eugene, Jack Leon and Wilbur Dale, all of the home. Besides his wife and children, he is survived by his father, Robert Miller, of Mayetta; stepmother, Sadie Miller; two brothers, Edward and Arthur of Holton; and one half-sister, Carrie Margaret, of Mayetta; also three nieces and three nephews, other relatives and a host of friends.

Charley, as he was familiarly called by his friends, was a friendly man and did his best to fulfill his duties as father and husband. He met the trials and difficulties of life cheerfully, and his relatives and friends have only pleasant memories of his love and friendship among them.

Charley was taken ill with pneumonia a little over a week ago, and all that the physician and loving hands could do for him was done, but to no avail, and, Charley went to his perfect rest.

The funeral service was held at the Mercer Funeral Home Monday, Feb. 1st, at 2:00 p. m., conducted by Rev. Alfred Tebben, with music furnished by Miss Christina Stoll. The body was laid to rest in the Holton cemetery. Pallbearers were Ray Gra-

"ABE" MAHLER

There was universal regret and a feeling of personal loss in this community Monday morning when word came that "Abe" Mahler had died at his home shortly after midnight. On Sunday a number of relatives had spent the day at the Mahler home. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Mahler visited Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shumaker. After their return home Mr. Mahler suffered a stroke of apoplexy, lapsing into unconsciousness and passing away a few hours later. He had been in poor health for a number of years.

Eberhard Cornils Mahler was born June 2, 1868, in Elderstadt, Province of Schillewig, Holstein, Germany, and died June 15, 1936, at his home in Goff, Kansas, at the age of 68 years, 13 days. He was the eldest of six children of Mr. and Mrs. Johann Mahler of his native German province.

On July 23, 1898, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Cox-Cordon of Bancroft, at Seneca. Three children were born to them, Dorothea Jane Scott of Wetmore; and two sons, Perl Chester and Percy George, who died at the ages of 7 and 6 years in November, 1908, of diphtheria. Besides the wife and daughter he is survived by six grandchildren, Ivan, Angela Beth, Gene, Marvel, Elaine and James Cornelius, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott, besides many other relatives and a host of friends.

Mr. Mahler had worked in various vocations in life. For a number of years he was employed in elevators at Bancroft and Kelly by J. E. Wilcox. Later he worked in the hardware and drug business, and was in the cream station and separator business in Goff.

For many years he was caretaker in Fairview cemetery, where he was laid to rest. With others he had worked to make this final resting place one of beauty.

He was a faithful member of the Odd Fellow lodge, also of the Rebekah order, the Modern Woodmen and a charter member of the Goff Twenty-Two Club.

Funeral service was held at the Christian church in Goff Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Chas. A. Richard of Seneca, a friend of Mr. Mahler for thirty years, gave a very fitting tribute on the life of the departed. Fellow Odd Fellows, Isaac Camp, Ray Riley, Chester Heald, W. T. Snodgrass, E. L. Clelland and Earl Shubert served as pallbearers. A male quartet composed of Harvard Goodrich, Rolland Clarkson, Wilbur Moore and Donald Cordon, with Mrs. L. J. Stark, pianist, gave appropriate selections. Miss Edith E. Sharpe and Mrs. Snodgrass had charge of the beautiful floral display. Interment was in the family lot in Fairview.

The many friends of Mrs. Mahler, Mrs. Scott and all the members of the family extend to them sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

Mrs. Lizzie Cox and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carr, Chas. Cox and son Marvin, and Jack Whittey all of Kansas City, Mrs. Jane Miller and George Cox and three daughters of Atchison, Mrs. Lee Turman and Mrs. Ida Hittle of Topeka, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Cox and daughter, June, of Corning, also Mrs. Sarah Cox and son, Pete, and Broadbent of Corning, Mr. and Mrs. Will Porter and daughter, Betty, of Wetmore, Lester Cox of Ontario, Jas. Scott and grand-daughter and grandson of Atchison, Mrs. Jessie Bryant also of Atchison were among relatives and friends from out of town who came for the funeral of E. C. Mahler.

CARD OF THANKS—We wish to extend sincere thanks to all the friends for their help in the death of our husband and father, E. C. Mahler, for the kind words, floral gifts and assistance in his funeral service.—Mrs. Mahler, Mrs. Harry Scott and family.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In memory of Brother Mahler

Once again Death has summoned a Brother God Fellow and the Golden Gate has opened, to welcome him to his home. He has completed his work in ministering to the wants of the afflicted, in shedding light into darkened souls and bringing joy into the place of misery, and as his reward has received the plaudit, "Well Done," from the Supreme Master.

And Whereas he having been a true and faithful Brother of the Mystic Order, therefore, be it

Resolved that Goff Lodge No. 377, L. O. O. F. of Goff, Kansas, in testimony of its loss, be draped in mourning for thirty days; that we tender to the family of our deceased brother, our sincere condolence in their deep affliction; and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, a copy printed in The Goff Advance and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased Brother.

Eberhard Cornils Mähler was born June 2nd, 1868 in Eiderstedt, Province Schleswig, Holstein, Germany. Confirmed in the German Lutheran Church on April 24th, 1884. In May, 1885, as only a boy, he left the old home and sailed for America, landing in New York on June 5th, going immediately to Akron, Ohio, where he attended school for nearly a year.

The following spring he came to Denison, Iowa where he received his naturalization papers. From there he went to South Dakota in the year 1890, where he remained until the fall of 1896, when he came to Nemaha County, Kansas, locating first in Hancock.

Obituary.

The angel of death has brought bereavement to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mahler. Tuesday morning at 1:30 o'clock a. m. Percy was taken from them to the eternal home. Percy had been sick only a very short time. Percy G. Mahler was born March 12, 1903, in Goff, Kansas, and died November 3, 1908, age 5 years 7 months and 22 days. He was one above the average of children, a kind and loving disposition, who always had a kind word for young and old, and will be greatly missed by one and all. The community sympathizes with the parents.

A precious one from us has gone,

A voice we loved is stilled.

A place is vacant in our home

Which never can be filled.

God, in his wisdom has recalled

The boon his love had given—

And though the body slumbers here,

The soul is safe in Heaven.

Card of Thanks

To the many friends who so willingly assisted us in the hour of our bereavement by their kind ministrations, tender sympathy and words of comfort, we return our heartfelt thanks.—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mahler, and children.

Death of Little Pearl Mahler.

The angel of death has again entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mahler, and removed from the family circle their only son. The silent tread of those who carried little Percy's body to rest was still audible in the minds of the parents. Two bright jewels removed only nine days apart, two vacant places that never can be filled, two little mounds that call back to memory, sweet angelic voices that was the pride and sunlight of the home. But while sadness and gloom prevails in the hearts of the parents, yet there is a hope that shines brighter than the morning star, that loving hands are beckoning, sweet voices are calling, lovely forms are waiting to welcome papa and mama to the home of rest.

Pearl C. Mahler was born in Kelly, Kansas, December 15, 1900, and died in Goff November 12, 1908, age 7 years, 10 months and 27 days. Pearl had been ill only about two weeks with croup, but his illness was not considered serious until Wednesday afternoon, between 5 and 6 o'clock, when his recovery became doubtful. Pearl was always a bright and cheerful little fellow, and during his illness he never had a word of complaint, and up until a few hours of his death he played with his toys, but becoming weary he gathered them together and requested that they be put away, remarking that his parents had done all they could for him, and later closed his eyes in pleasant dreams to awake in the arms of Jesus, safe on his gentle breast.

Another one from us is gone

Another voice we loved is stilled.

Two vacant chairs sit by our hearth

That never can be filled.

Our precious little boys have gone

We'll see their smiles no more

Nor hear their gentle voices again

Till we meet on that beautiful shore.

ROBERT DAUGHERTY,
Pastor Baptist Church
Wellmore, Kansas.

Card Of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to friends and neighbors, for their kindness shown in the illness and death of our two precious boys.

MR. AND MRS. E. C. MAHLER,
AND DAUGHTER.

Harry August Scott, youngest child of James and Irene Medley Scott, was born in Atchison on July 9, 1905 and departed from this life on April 10, 1969 at the age of 63 years, nine months, and one day.

At the age of 12, he moved with his parents to a farm northwest of Wetmore, where he spent the remainder of his life. He attended school in Goff.

On June 10, 1924, he was united in marriage to Dorothea Jane Mahler of Goff and to this union nine children were born, five sons: Ivan, Elton, Jim, Bob and Mac, and four daughters: Beth, Marvel, Elaine, and Ruth. A source of pride to him was his family. In his devotion for his wife, his nine children, their husbands and wives, 34 grandchildren and a great-granddaughter, one was never placed ahead of the other. He always had time and was never too busy to listen, to guide, to visit, and to be deeply concerned about the welfare of each one. His family felt the challenge to live up to his expectations.

He farmed the home place until 1950 when he began to work for Underwood Construction Company in Topeka and where he was still working six days prior to his death.

Scotty, as he was known to many friends and acquaintances was a pillar of strength, of quiet courage, and always thoughtful of others. He felt that everyone had a place in this world and respected the opinions and rights of others at all times. Scotty's life was too full to ever enter into arguments and disagreements, but when necessary he believed that talking over the facts and time itself would dissolve differences. The lives of those who knew him were enriched by having known him, for every acquaintance was a friend.

Preceding him in death were his parents, one brother, Robert, two sisters, Mrs. Ruben Hines and Mrs. Wm. Shaver, and two grandchildren, Tammy Scott and Randy Scott.

Those left to cherish the memories are his wife, Dorothea, of the home; five sons, Ivan Scott, Belle Plaine; Elton (Gene) Scott, Effingham; James Scott, Topeka; Robert Scott, Holton; Harry Mac Scott, Manhattan. Four daughters, Beth, Mrs. Paul H. Bohannon, Holton; Marvel, Mrs. George McDaniel, Winchester; Elaine, Mrs. Cletus Suther, New Carlisle, Ohio; Ruth, Mrs. Dennis Reed, Holton. 34 grandchildren.

one great-granddaughter, four daughters-in-laws, four sons-in-laws, three nephews, Robert Hines, Lawrence; Bill Shaver, Topeka; Jim Shaver, California; a foster son, Eldon Holmes, Falls City, Nebraska; and a host of friends.

Services were held Saturday, April 12, 1969 in the chapel of the Mercer Funeral Home in Holton, Kansas, at 2 p.m. Rev. Wakefield, Goff, officiated.

Vocal music was furnished by Claude and Clyde Rieschick, who sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "In The Garden," accompanied by Mrs. Judy Zwonitzer.

Pallbearers were: Leonard Smith, Herb Smith, Nobel Bell, Paul Porter, Dallas McKee and Bill Shaver. Honorary pallbearers were Bill Leslie, Bill Underwood, John Meyers, Wyatt Brown, Dan Smith, and Jim McCauley. Gene Trundle, Fannie Smith, Betty Thieme, Alma Spiker and Helen Loveall were in charge of the flowers.

Interment was in the Wetmore Cemetery.

Wetmore

Among the many relatives and friends at the funeral of Harry A. Scott were their four daughters, five sons and 34 grandchildren. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bohannon and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Reed of Holton, Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel, and family of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Suther and children of New Carlisle, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Scott and family of Bell Plaine, Mr. and Mrs. Elton (Gene) Scott and children of Effingham, Mr. and Mrs. James Scott and family of Topeka, Harry (Mac) Scott, a student at K-State, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott and family of Holton.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Harry A. Scott who passed away April 10, one year ago.

When evening shades are falling
And we sit in quiet alone,
To our hearts there comes a longing

If he could only be home.
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
But they little know the heart-aches,
Our smiles hide all the while.
Sadly missed by Mrs. Harry A. Scott and children.

Mahler-Scott.

Miss Dorothea J. Mahler and Mr. Harry A. Scott surprised their friends the past week when they announced their marriage at Holton on the 10th of last June. Probate Judge Clark performed the ceremony. The young couple had taken their parents into their confidence but did not announce their marriage to the public until this week.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mahler of Goff and has lived all her life in this community. She is a splendid young lady, industrious and capable. After graduating from Goff High last year she secured a position in the school at Palmer, but has since resigned.

The groom is the only son of Conductor and Mrs. Jas. Scott, who live on their farm east of Goff. Harry is a whole hearted young man, and has attended Goff High for several years. He will continue to manage his father's farm, where the young couple will make their home. We join with their many friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

Mrs. Dorothea J. Scott

Mrs. Dorothea Jane Scott, 83, Wetmore, died Sunday, Jan. 15, 1989, at a Topeka hospital.

She was born Jan. 5, 1905, at Goff, the daughter of Eberhard and Ada Cox Mahler. She was graduated from Goff High School in 1924 and lived most of her life in the Goff and Wetmore communities.

Mrs. Scott was a member of First Christian Church in Goff, Rebekah Lodge, Royal Neighbors Lodge and Morning Star Club. She also was a member of Goff Chapter No. 439 of Order of Eastern Star in Goff, the auxiliary to Levick-Barrett Post No. 282 of the American Legion in Wetmore and the auxiliary to Holton Memorial Post No. 1367 of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

She was married to Harry August Scott June 10, 1924, at Goff. He died April 10, 1969. She also was preceded in death by a son, Ivan L. Scott, in 1988.

Survivors include four daughters, Beth Bohannon, Holton, Marvel McDaniel, Winchester, Elaine Suther, New Carlisle, Ohio, and Ruth Glenn, Wetmore; four sons, Gene Scott, Effingham, Jim Scott, Topeka, Bob Scott, Holton, and Mac Scott, Houston; 38 grandchildren; and 45 great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Mercer Funeral Home in Holton. Burial will be in Wetmore Cemetery at Wetmore. Relatives and friends will meet from 7 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home. Contributions may be made to the Dorothea Scott Memorial Fund yet to be designated by relatives and sent in care of Kansas State Bank, Holton, 66436.

Footprints

One night I had a dream. I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the skies flashed scenes from my life. In each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One was mine, and one was the Lord's.

When the last scene of my life appeared before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand, and to my surprise I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. And I noticed that it was at the lowest and saddest times in my life.

I asked the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I notice that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why you left my side when I needed you most."

The Lord replied, "My precious child, I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, where you see only one set of footprints, I was carrying you."

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took his hand when I heard him call
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks undone must stay that way.
 I found that peace at close of day.
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full; I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts and share with me
 God wanted me now; He set me free.

Former Wetmore youth dies from injuries in June accident

A one-car accident that happened in June has claimed its third victim, a former Nemaha county boy, Loren Eugene McDaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. McDaniel.

The accident was June 12 five miles northeast of Valley Falls. The Topeka Daily Capital of Sunday reported:

Loren Eugene McDaniel, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. McDaniel, died shortly after noon while undergoing surgery for a bone graft at a Topeka hospital where he was transferred from Winchester hospital Wednesday.

McDaniel has suffered severe back injuries and a broken upper right leg and had been a patient at the Winchester hospital since the accident.

Killed in the crash were Roger Dale Scrivner, 15, and William Charles Pence, 14, both of Winchester.

McDaniel, a junior at Jefferson County North High School, had maintained his studies through a tutor who taught him at the Winchester hospital.

Dr. Antonio Huaman, deputy district coroner, who performed an autopsy, said the cause of McDaniel's death hadn't been determined.

McDaniel was born April 21, 1954, at Holton, the son of George F. and Marvel Scott McDaniel, and spent most of his life in the Granada community north of Wetmore.

He attended kindergarten and first grade classes at Holton and completed his grade school studies at Wetmore Grade School. He has lived at Winchester since May 1966.

He attended First United Methodist Church at Winchester.

Besides his parents, survivors include a sister, Cindy McDaniel, at home; two brothers, John McDaniel and Greg McDaniel, both at home, and Mike McDaniel, Manhattan; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. McDaniel, and Mrs. Harry Scott, all of Wetmore.

Services were 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Winchester Junior High School auditorium, with burial at the Wetmore cemetery.

Third Victim Of June Auto Mishap Dies

The third victim of a June 12 car mishap near Valley Falls, Loren E. McDaniel, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel, Winchester, died Friday afternoon Nov. 13, at a Topeka hospital.

McDaniel died shortly after submitting to surgery for a bone graft in repairing injuries suffered in the accident which claimed the lives of two other Winchester youths, William C. Pence, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pence, and Roger Scrivner, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Scrivner.

McDaniel had been a patient at Jefferson County Memorial hospital, Winchester, since the mishap in which he suffered severe injuries to his back and a broken upper right leg. He was taken to the Topeka hospital Wednesday to undergo the bone graft.

A clot that developed in an injured leg bone was responsible for the death of the youth, according to a coroner's report. The clot apparently moved from the leg to the brain, causing the heart and respiration to stop.

Three other Winchester youths were also injured in the one-car accident which occurred about 11 p.m. on the Effingham road five miles northeast of Valley Falls. They were Gary Barnhart, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Barnhart; Greg Scrivner, 16, brother of one of the two youths killed at the time of the accident, and Bruce Raymond Brown.

According to Kansas Highway Patrol report at the time of the accident, the car, a 1957 Chevrolet driven by Barnhart, struck the north end of a concrete bridge abutment, went out of control and hurtled over trees before landing on the opposite bank of a creek. All but one of the youths were thrown from the car as it hurtled through the air.

McDaniel was born April 21, 1954 at Holton and attended kindergarten and the first grade at Holton before the family moved to Granada, north of Wetmore, and he later attended the Wetmore schools.

He moved with his family to Winchester in May 1966 where he had resided since. He was a junior at Jefferson County North high school at Nortonville and had been continuing his studies while hospitalized through a tutor. He attended the First United Methodist church at Winchester.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Cindy McDaniel, at home; and three brothers, John and Greg, at home, and Mike, Manhattan; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott, all Wetmore.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Winchester Junior high school auditorium with the Rev. David Patterson and the Rev. Roger Eschliman officiating.

Dorothy Shove was pianist and Mrs. Ed Leu and Mrs. Eldon Farris sang. Pallbearers were Ed Meyers, Jim Macomber, Lee Fraker, Gary Milroy, David Edmonds and Melvin Hartley.

Burial was in the Wetmore cemetery. Hagge Funeral Home, Valley Falls, was in charge of arrangements.

McDANIEL

George Frederick McDaniel was born in Sabetha on November 19, 1929 to George Washington and Mildred Ellen Jones McDaniel. He graduated from Wetmore high school in 1946.

On January 10, 1951, he married Marvel Irene Scott. To this union was born one daughter and four sons, Mrs. Cindy Griffiths of Oskaloosa, Mike of Omaha, Nebraska; Larry John of Valley Falls, Gregg of the home and Loren who preceded George in death in November of 1970.

George farmed with his dad until 1956. He worked the next 17 years in grocery and various other businesses in Holton, Granada, Wetmore and Winchester communities. In 1973 he was employed as a meat inspector for the State of Kansas. George died September 5 as a result of a heart attack.

Survivors include his wife, three children, three grandchildren, one brother, Robert McDaniel of Wetmore; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Lou Ketter of Topeka; Mrs. Shirley Whitebread of Boulder City, Nevada; and Mrs. Beckie Kern of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Other survivors include aunts, uncles, and the Scott family, who thought of George as a brother.

George was dedicated to his family, friends and work. He has impressed his high sense of values upon many of us through his honesty, devotion and concern for others.

Funeral services were held in the Mercer Chapel Friday, September 8 at 10 a.m. with Rev. Doug Morphis in charge.

Mrs. Ray Wright sang and played "The Old Rugged Cross" and "How Great Thou Art."

Pallbearers were: Pat Peek, Mel Hartley, Ed Myer, Bob Hall, Gary Milroy and Wayne Luttman.

Burial was in the Wetmore Cemetery.

Remembering a dear friend Commentary

New Carlisle Sun Staff

NEW CARLISLE - Kathy Suther was an important part of our weekly routine at the New Carlisle Sun and she will be missed greatly. We were so sad to hear of her sudden and untimely death. She was a bright spot in our weeks here.

Kathy was a fun and honest lady at age 39. She and her family have been involved with the paper for years. Her children were carriers and she delivered papers to our youth carriers in Park Layne.

She was loyal and hard working at both her jobs. When she wasn't helping us with papers on Wednesdays she was working hard as manager of Dollar General. She never really complained about anything. She loved to joke around and that always made her time here memorable.

Kathy was special in another way. This single hardworking mother of three, and was in the process of adopting a little boy named Allen. This young man is funny and vibrant and full of energy. We are sad for this little guy who loved Kathy dearly.

Our hearts hurt as there will be an empty spot in our Wednesday afternoons. And if you shopped in town at Dollar General you too will miss her smiling face.

Remember Kathy as we do - a hard-working mother and friend to many.

We ask that you help the family by making a memorial donation to the Kathy Suther Benefit Fund at any Security National Bank location.

*I have to let you go
But it's the hardest thing to do
I have to let you go
God is waiting there for you*

*I have to let you go
It hurts so bad inside
I have to let you go
But I need you by my side*

*I have to let you go
But the tears still fall
I have to let you go
I know you loved us all*

*I have to let you go
You wouldn't want me to grieve
I have to let you go
So you will be proud of me*

*I have to let you go
You will always be a part of me
I have let you go
Now God will set us Free*

May I go now?

*Do you think the time is right?
May I say goodbye to pain-filled days and endless lonely nights?*

*I've lived my life and done my best,
an example tried to be.*

So, can I take that step beyond and set my spirit free?

*I didn't want to go at first,
I fought with all my might.*

But something seems to draw me now to a warm and loving light.

*I want to go. I really do. It's difficult to stay.
But I will try as best I can to live just one more day.*

*To give you time to care for me
and share your love and fears.*

I know you're sad and are afraid because I see your tears.

*I'll not be far - I promise that:
and hope you'll always know*

That my spirit will be close to you, wherever you may go.

Thank you so for loving me.

You know I love you too, that's why it's hard to say good-bye and end this life with you.

*So hold me now just one more time
and let me hear you say,*

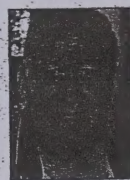

*because you care so much for me,
you'll let me go today.*

THOMAS L. COX, SR.

Thomas L. Cox, Sr., 69, of 2208 N. 43rd Terrace, Kansas City, Kansas, died Sunday at a nursing home in Paola, Kan. He was born in Bancroft, Kan., and had lived most of his life in Kansas City, Kansas. He retired in 1970 as an engineer for the Union Pacific Railroad, where he had been employed 42 years. Mr. Cox was a member of the Seventh Street United Methodist Church. He held a lifetime honorary membership with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He was a member of the Kaw Masonic Lodge and the Union Pacific Old-Timers Club. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Elsie I. Cox, and a son, Thomas L. Cox, Jr., both of the home. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Porter Chapel; burial in Highland Park Cemetery. Friends may call after 5 p.m. today at the chapel. The family suggests memorials to the church or to charity.

Card of Thanks.

We, the mother, wife, brothers and sister of the late deceased, Thomas Cox desire to express our sincere thanks to the people of Goffs, Bancroft and Wetmore who so kindly lent their aid and sympathy during the illness, death and burial of our beloved husband, son and brother. Words cannot express our gratitude for the kindness shown and the sympathy we have felt from a host of friends, who will accept this as only an imperfect manner of expressing our heart felt thanks.

"Death of Thomas E. Cox.

After almost eleven weeks of suffering from complications resulting from an attack of pneumonia, Thomas E. Cox, aged 24 years, died Thursday morning, March 26 at 4 o'clock. His case had been an obstinate one, especially since suffering from a relapse about eight weeks ago. Mr. Cox was taken ill at his home on the Cox homestead near Bancroft, but was brought to Goffs two weeks ago where his mother and brothers and sister could give him their undivided attention. All the tender care and devotion of wife and mother, the constant attention of fond brothers and sister, and the best of medical skill could not arrest the hand of death. The deceased leaves a young wife and a baby boy eight weeks old, who will suffer the loss of a faithful companion and a fond father. His mother, one sister, Mrs. E. C. Mahler, and six brothers mourn his loss. The remains will be taken to Wetmore today (Friday) on the 2 o'clock train, and buried by the side of his father. Funeral services will be conducted at the Wetmore Baptist church by Rev. T. E. Rolfe. The stricken family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their sad bereavement.

(LATER) we have learned that it has been arranged to hold a short service at the residence before leaving for Wetmore, for the benefit of the friends that could not go.

Mrs. Ernestine Sourk

Mrs. Ernestine Sourk, 76, died Sunday at her home at 910 North Quincy, Topeka. She was born October 1, 1881 at Bancroft, and was a member of the Central Avenue Christian church of Topeka. She is survived by three sons, Thomas L. Cox and Richard M. Sourk of Kansas City, Kansas, and William M. Sourk of Zuni, N. M.

Services were held Wednesday at the Parker mortuary at Topeka, and burial was at Fairview cemetery at Goff.
